About This Book

Acknowledging What Is in You has been prepared for the believer's daily use for the edification of the spirit for dominion living. Speaking God's Word and His truths aloud is critical in the process of renewing your mind (Romans 12:2).

Each confession is scripturally based and targeted to defeat many of the lies the enemy tries to use against us. Daily speak each confession in a bold voice, declaring it as truth over your life and circumstances.

An audio version of, Acknowledging What Is in You is also available through the JGLM store at www.jglm.org.

Acknowledging What Is In You

By Curry R. Blake

Jesus is Lord!

In the name of Jesus, I believe on Jesus Christ. He is my Lord. He is my Master. I have given Him my life and my heart. I give Him my mind, and I renew my mind to the Word of God. His Word dwells in me, richly, in all wisdom.

I have been given the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him. In Him is hid all the wisdom of the ages, and in Him I abide; I dwell. I dwell in Him, and He in me. He is in the Father. I am in the Father. The Father is in Him, and the Father is in me.

The Holy Spirit fills me, completely, to overflowing. I am baptized in the Spirit, immersed, influenced, and controlled. In the name of Jesus, the Holy Spirit leads and guides me into all truth, truth that I walk in, holding forth the Word of life.

We are lights in darkness; lights to this world. The Light of the world is in me, and I am a light to the world. My light will shine, and by my light, I will glorify God.

My works will glorify God, my words will glorify God, and my thoughts will glorify God. I bring every thought into captivity, and I allow no thoughts contrary to the Word and knowledge of God.

I am healed by His stripes; I am healthy by His stripes. I walk in divine health, and I bring divine healing.

I preach the Gospel. I proclaim liberty to the captives. I set them free. I don't judge; I don't decide. I do not qualify people. I set them free so that the goodness of God can draw them to repentance.

They repent, meaning they change their minds, concerning sin, concerning the world, and even concerning God. They change their minds, because God gives me wisdom against which no man can gainsay. God gives me wisdom to win any person to whom I speak.

I walk in the power of Jesus Christ. I walk in the power that God has poured through Him. The power of Jesus Christ is the power I walk in. It is His power.

The authority I walk in is the authority of Jesus. It's not mine. It's not based on my works. It's not based on my name. It is based on the name of Jesus.

I walk in power. I walk in authority. I walk in ability; the very ability of God, Himself. I am filled with all the fullness of God, because I have the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost abiding in me; dwelling in me. They don't come and go. They dwell, and I dwell in them.

I love all men. I love God with all my heart, all my soul, and all my strength. I love all men as I love myself. I treat others the way I want to be treated; therefore, I walk in the way of life. I do not walk in the way of death.

My path is light. God directs my steps. As I make my plans, I expect the Holy Spirit to tell me of things to come, and that forms my plans. My plans are of God, because I acknowledge Him in all my ways.

I don't lean to my own understanding. I do not lean to my own strength, but I am strengthened with Christ. I am strengthened with His might, and I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

I am always strong; I am never weak. In the weakness of the flesh, God's strength is made strong, and therefore, acknowledging the weakness of all flesh, I lean on God's strength.

God pours through me in word, in deed, in love, in speech, and in practice. I embody love. I walk in love. I do not hold anything against anyone. I believe the best about everyone.

I forgive, and therefore, I am forgiven. I give mercy, and therefore, I have mercy. I give freely to any person; not judging, nor deciding, nor picking and choosing who deserves it and who does not.

I look at all men through the eyes of Christ. I see mankind the way God sees them; through eyes of love, eyes of grace, mercy, and long-suffering.

I take my time to help people; I go out of my way to help people. I will give myself to God and to mankind.

I am absolute master over all demonic and evil forces; beings, principalities, powers, or of any spiritual wickedness in heavenly places.

I do what is right. I have the whole armor of God. I am saved. I am filled with the Spirit of God. I am the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus.

His blood makes me free. His blood makes me righteous. His sacrifice made me acceptable, and I am accepted in the beloved. I am accepted by God. I am accepted by Jesus Christ.

His Spirit lives in me, walks in me, and talks in me. He is my God, and I am His child. I am a son, manifesting the name and the glory of God to this world. I am maturing. I am not carnal; I am spiritual.

I do not take offense; I refuse to take offense. I refuse to give unnecessary offense, but I will not compromise the Gospel or the truth of the Word of God.

I am teachable. I am correctable. I will listen. I will seek good counsel. I will listen to spiritual people who have words of the Spirit to speak into my life.

I look forward to growth and to any discomfort that growth may cause, because I know resistance provides strength.

By the Spirit of God, I am healed, I am delivered, and I am free. My mind is guarded. I take heed to what I hear and to whom I listen. I take heed to separate myself from the wicked. I do not sit in the seat of the scornful.

I walk in the company of the wise. I walk in the fullness of the Spirit, and the Spirit speaks through me. My words will be the words of God. My words are spirit, and they are life. They bring life; they provide life.

My words are seasoned with grace, and they bring edification to every person under the sound of my voice. I will speak that which is true, and I will speak the truth in love.

I purpose myself to become love personified. I purpose myself to give ground, to give up my rights and not to enforce my rights, and to lay down my life for others, so in the name of Jesus, I am forgiven. I have confessed any sin, and I am cleansed by the blood of Jesus. I am made whole.

I am now righteous by the blood of Jesus. His mind, His thoughts, His objectives, and His plans are mine. I have laid down my life and taken up His. I take up my cross; every day. Every day, I take up my cross!

I recognize that, every day, I count myself as dead. I die to the things of the world. I die to the things of the flesh, but I am alive to God. I am dead to sin.

Sin is not my friend; it is my enemy. It is not to be coddled; it is to be resisted, even unto blood. Sin is death. It is bondage. It is not my master, and I am not its servant.

I am God's son, I am man's servant, and I am the devil's master. All power has been given unto Jesus, and therefore, since my life is hid in Christ, the authority and power of Jesus Christ is the power and authority that I walk in. It is not my authority. It is His authority, for it is no longer I that live, but Christ who lives through me.

The life that I now live, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who lived and died and gave Himself for me.

This is how I know that I am born of God: I love the unlovable. I bless my enemies. I bless those that curse me. I bless those that spitefully use me.

I give myself to man, to be used and even abused, to know the fullness of the sacrifice of Christ so that I may know Him, and make Him known. "That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection..." I give myself so that His power may be fully manifested through my life, spirit, soul, and body.

I am complete, in Christ, who lives in me. He is the Head. I am His body. He gives me the thoughts; I speak His words. I go where He wants me to go. I am His feet, I am His hands, I am His mouth, and I am His eyes.

He walks in me, talks in me, talks through me, and helps me to talk to others. He provides all power, and I provide the action.

I pray and receive, and He is glorified through my receiving. By my receiving, my joy is made full, because I know that He hears me. I know that if He hears me, then I have what I ask. I have everything that I have asked for in the name of Jesus; everything. Everything that I ask for, I receive, and if I receive it, I shall have it. I shall have it in the spirit, and I shall have it in the physical.

My prayers are answered, because Jesus paid the price. My words come to pass, so right now, from this day forth, I will not say words (either the words themselves or the manner in which they are spoken) in any way that will hurt, that will harm, or that will bring discomfort to anyone unnecessarily.

I will speak the truth in love. I will bring peace. My heart is pure. My mind is renewed. My thoughts are pure. I think on things that are above. I think on things that are pure and of good report, things that bring joy to God and peace to my spirit. I will be known as a person of peace.

I will be known as a person of love, but I will also be known as a person of truth, and a person of power. God's power is available to me, to be used when I deem fit, to be used by me, according to the will of God, which is for things to be done on earth as they are in heaven.

His will is my will. I choose His will. I choose His way above my way. It is not my will, but His will that I will do. I will seek to make sure that in every way my will comes into alignment with His will, because His Spirit, His words, His power, and His mind, fill me and dwell in me every day; all day.

I take the opportunity to choose to turn situations into glory to God that the devil meant for bad. I refuse to be defeated. I refuse to allow the enemy to dictate my actions, my thoughts, my words, and my reactions.

From this day forth, the Spirit of God will flow from me. I will speak His words. I will study His words; I will devour the Word of God. This Word will abide in me, richly, causing every situation to turn to the glory of God.

I will lay down my life. I will lay down my rights. I give myself to be used, for and by God, in every situation.

I will always put the mission first; the mission is to reach the world. The mission is to preach the Gospel with words, with actions, and with attitude; the right attitude of God; an attitude of peace, an attitude of love, and an attitude of faith.

I will walk in faith. I will walk by faith and not by sight. I choose to believe the Word of God over what my eyes show me. I choose to believe the report of God over the report of man. God's Word is final authority in my life. If He said it, I believe it! It is settled!

I will walk by God's Word, and I will not allow deception. I will not allow any thoughts contrary to the Word of God. I will pull down strongholds of wrong doctrine, wrong teaching, or anything that exalts itself against the knowledge of God. I will pull them down and bring them to captivity.

I will let free the words of God. I will let them free through my mouth. I will let them free through my mind. I will think the thoughts of God; thoughts of goodwill toward all men.

I let the mind of Christ dwell in me. I have that mind, because I am born again. I am a new creature, in Christ. Old things are passed away; all things have become new. All things are of God.

I am of God. God is in me; in fullness. He has captured me, and now I live in Him, I walk in Him, and I talk in Him. Right now, God is with me, and I am accepted by Him. I am cleansed and made whole; healed from head to toe. I am healed by the stripes of Jesus, not by the works that I have performed, not by any deed, not even by my faith, but by the stripes of Jesus.

Even when I am unfaithful, He is faithful, because He is greater than all. I am born of Him. I am in Him. I am joined to Him, and we are one Spirit. I have the Spirit of faith, and I speak by the Spirit of faith.

I do not look at people as they are; I look at them as they should be. I look at them as they could be, and I look at them in Christ Jesus, that in Christ, they are complete, and they are whole. That is the way I look at them, and that is how I treat them.

I treat them with dignity, with honor, and with respect, and I choose my words so that they reflect that. My words will reflect honor, and respect, regardless of what I see coming from them or through them.

I will speak evil of no man. I will speak of goodness, as God has spoken about us and blessed us with every spiritual blessing in heavenly places.

I will bless all men. I will speak well. I will speak the blessings of God. I will treat them as I would treat Christ.

I will lay down my rights. I will lay down my preeminence, and I will give it to them. I will look at their needs and make sure that they are taken care of. I will not consider my needs, but I will consider theirs.

We give, and it is given to us. What we pour out is poured back in greater measure. I cannot out give God; I can only give what I've received. God has given me everything that I need; that I desire; that I could want.

God has made provision for my needs to be met. I do not want; my wants are fulfilled. I have sought first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and I have been filled. Therefore, I am righteous, and I have all things.

Whatever I see that I need, I simply ask, and it is given. I expect my needs to be met through Jesus Christ. According to His glory and the riches of His glory, He meets my needs.

God is not stingy; He is not holding back. He is asking, and telling, and wanting me to ask. He is waiting for me to ask so that He can pour out blessings that I may receive. I can then pass them on to others less fortunate.

I can become the channel of God to the world: healing, blessing, prosperity, deliverance, and all things in Heaven. I become a conduit through which they flow.

I am free, and I set others free. I am healed, and I heal others. I am delivered, and I deliver others.

The Spirit of the living God, His nature, His character, and His attributes are demonstrated through me in every way; in every opportunity.

I will turn every situation into the glory of God. Nothing can separate me from God, and therefore, I will not separate myself.

I will not divide what God has joined. We are one with Christ. We are one with God. We are one with one another; all in one; all part of the body.

He is the Head, and we are the body. We are the church, and it is the church's responsibility to meet the needs of the world; every need, regardless of what it is.

Our bank account is heaven's bank account. Whatever the world could need, God has provided. I will expect and trust God to bring it through me.

I expect to do the same works as Jesus. I expect to do greater works, because He went to the Father.

The truth of the Word of God is alive in me. I am filled. I am alive. His life is in me. His life flows through me to others. His life brings freedom through me, and I distribute it freely to everyone that has need: young or old, male or female, regardless of ethnic background; there is no distinction.

I bring freedom everywhere I go, in the name of Jesus. The enemy cannot stop me. I resist him, because I have submitted myself unto God, and because I have humbled myself, God will exalt me. I will look to no man to exalt me; I look to God.

I have laid my life down, and God has taken my life and turned it into something good; something He can use to bring freedom to people. I bring glory to God by bringing freedom to man.

In the name of Jesus, what I have spoken is true. It is true now, and it will remain true. I say it, and therefore, I stand by it. I have spoken the truth of the Word of God.

For the things that are already seen, I give God the glory, and for things that are not yet seen, I give God the glory.

Those things that need to be brought forth in my life, I call into being. I call those things, which be not, as though they were, because I speak by faith, and faith brings it to pass.

As I exert faith, I bring glory to God. I bring pleasure to God, and I get a good report, because I walk in faith.

I take the shield of faith, and the darts of the enemy cannot touch me. I quench every dart, by my faith in Christ Jesus. He said that nothing shall by any means harm me. I believe Him. No harm shall come to me. I am protected. I am encompassed by the Spirit of God.

God's angels protect me, guard me, surround me, and they protect me from my enemy. The enemy cannot successfully form a weapon against me.

Everything that rises up against me shall be cast down. Every tongue that has been formed and has risen up against me shall be put to shame, because I am God's child. I have what He has.

It is His pleasure to give me the Kingdom, and I receive that Kingdom: righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. I receive it. I receive the righteousness of God. I am in right standing with God and accepted by God.

I can and will come boldly to the throne of grace for help in time of need. I am never turned away; I'm always accepted. I live in the Kingdom.

I live in faith. I live in righteousness. I am right with God. I am right in my thoughts, my actions, deeds, works, speech, and in every way. My thoughts are pure. They are good, and I renew my mind to the Word of God.

I am a doer of the Word. I am not just a hearer but a doer. I do what it says, and I am blessed in all of my works. God's works pour through me: life, blessing, health, miracles, words of wisdom, and words of knowledge.

I discern the spirits. I speak in other tongues; I have diversities of other tongues. God enhances my tongues, and I have the interpretation of tongues.

I will walk in the gifts of the Spirit, because I will walk in the fullness of the Spirit and in the fullness of a son. I am in the church, I am of the church, the world will see God through me. The world will know that God is in me; of a truth.

The world will know that God works through me, and they will know this because of the love that I show. This is not a love that is fake and just Christian talk, but a love that is born by the Spirit of God.

This love is one that brings truth, and peace. It is one that brings freedom. It is one that brings rebuke, correction, and instruction in righteousness.

I will be led by the Spirit of God, because I am a son. I am not a slave; I am a son. I am free to do the Word of God. I can do it anytime, anywhere, and I do.

I am bold to speak the Word in grocery stores, in malls, and in banks. Anywhere I am, I speak the Word of God. I am bold, and I speak up.

I speak freely, I speak openly, and I display the Kingdom of God in every way, in the name of Jesus. Amen!
