Foreword by Tella Olayeri

We live in a world that is not merely a physical realm but a battleground, where every believer is called to the formidable task of waging a good fight of faith. It is a spiritual arena where the children of God are pitted against the agents of the devil. Tragically, many believers remain unaware of this ongoing spiritual battle, leading lives marked by vulnerability and unproductivity.

It is a dire misfortune that numerous professing Christians falter on their day of battle, underestimating the strength of their adversaries. The divine power, though readily available and intended to fortify them, often remains unclaimed. This lack of realization and appropriation results in missed opportunities to live out God's plan fully and effectively.

In this compelling book, Dr. Prayer M. Madueke offers deep insights into the nature of spiritual warfare and equips you with the tools needed to engage effectively. You will learn how to harness the power of God to not only withstand the enemy but also thrive and fulfill your divine destiny. Dr. Madueke's guidance will empower you to serve your generation faithfully and achieve your spiritual calling.

As you turn these pages, prepare to be transformed by the profound truths within. Embrace the challenge to fight the good fight and emerge victorious, fulfilling your God-given destiny.

Foreword by Dr Francis Jonah

In a world where the lines between the seen and unseen blur, the spiritual realm takes on a significance that cannot be overstated. As believers, we are not merely spectators but active participants in a cosmic struggle that spans the ages. It is within this context that Dr. Prayer M. Madueke's "The Institute of Spiritual Warfare" emerges as an essential guide for those called to fight on the front lines of faith.

This book is not just about understanding the nature of our enemies—though it does that with profound clarity and insight. It is also about recognizing our identity and authority in Christ, which equip us to overcome the forces arrayed against us. Dr. Madueke does more than outline the battles; he provides the spiritual weaponry and armor necessary to engage and triumph.

Each page of this book serves as a call to arms, urging us to take up the shield of faith and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. It teaches us not only to defend but also to reclaim territories lost to fear, despair, and deception. Through personal anecdotes, biblical analysis, and actionable strategies, Dr. Madueke prepares readers to step confidently into the arena, fortified by God's power and guided by His wisdom.

As you turn these pages, expect to be challenged and changed. The principles and practices outlined here are transformative, designed not only to inform but also to empower. Whether you are a seasoned warrior in spiritual warfare or a new recruit to the spiritual battles that rage around us, you will find invaluable resources in this text.

Let this book be a map and a manifesto. As you read, may your spirit be stirred, your heart emboldened, and your hands strengthened. The battle is real, the stakes are high, and the time for action is now. Welcome to "The Institute of Spiritual Warfare."

Welcome to The Institute of Spiritual Warfare

By God's grace, this ministry will be launching the first University of its kind -"The University of Heaven," with diverse faculties. The first faculty is called -"Faculty of Spiritual Warfare and Dominion over Witchcraft." Other faculties to be featured soon are; Faculty Of Prayer and Deliverance, Faculty Of Grace and Mercy, and others. Each of these faculties will be divided into departments. However, we are launching the Faculty of Spiritual Warfare and Dominion Over Witchcraft soon.

The Institute of Spiritual Warfare kicks off with three books. First up is 'Institute of Spiritual Warfare,' a powerful read with over 480 pages and 73,978 words. Then there's 'Master Prayers for Spiritual Warfare,' a thicker tome with around 800 pages and 135,000 words. Lastly, there's 'My Lecture Notes for Spiritual Warfare, University of Heaven,' a lighter read with about 200 pages and 30,000 words.

Completing this School means mastering the principles of Spiritual Warfare. Before classes begin online, the books will be launched. Only registered students can access our lectures, but anyone can read the books. However, certain deep secrets of the training will only be shared with those who successfully go through the school. So, here is a chance you do not want to miss –this is your chance to sign up for this school to learn, unlearn and relearn deep spiritual truths.

ONE

SPIRITUAL WARFARE 1

Everyone is in spiritual warfare, but it is only the genuinely born-again Christians who will be victorious. Being ignorant of the ongoing spiritual conflict in your life shows that you have already lost victory.

What is the fate of the average man? The average man is defeated and overcome by sin and brought into bondage and slavery.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

— EPHESIANS 6:12

This is why you cannot afford to be an average man. I remember meeting a student who once asked if we could just be everyday ordinary Christians instead of taking things seriously. The truth is that you cannot be ordinary or average. You must be on fire for God at all times.

Why are some believers still under captivity and the grip of sin? Many people, even some so-called believers, are overcome by one sinful character or another. Some powers bring them under such captivity, compelling them to do things they don't like. Some have accepted such a lifestyle and excuse themselves as being human. They are brought down into captivity and subjected to live under such sin till the day they die.

What becomes of believers who can't resist sin? When some believers allow themselves to be trapped by the lie of the devil that it is impossible to resist sin, such believers live like slaves to those sinful characters throughout their lives without putting up any resistance any longer.

For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

— GALATIANS 5:17

God wants you to resist the devil and stand your ground against him at all times.

What becomes of anyone who accepts sin in his life? Once you accept such sin in your life and fail to resist it, the devil will suppress and oppress you and eventually reign over all areas of your life. What the devil wants is for you to think it is impossible to resist sin, and that is also the desire of his principal demons, rulers of darkness and spiritual wickedness in the high places. The moment you accept sin in your life, these spiritual entities will try to take over your life and keep you trapped through manipulation and control.

What is the will of God for you? The will of God for you is to be redeemed, saved, and sanctified. Christ paid the total price for our redemption when he died on the cross.

Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

— 1 PETER 5:7-9

And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

— LUKE 22:31

The implication of this is that you are not walking in the will of God if you still allow sin to have dominion over you.

For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace (Rom 6:14)

Why is victory over sin important? Victory over sin is the first victory that must be won in our spiritual warfare, without which every other victory and testimony is useless and empty. Once a man can attain victory over sin, every other victory quickly falls into place—victory over generational curses, victory over financial handicaps, victory over marital issues. Victory over sin restores the dominion man lost in the garden of Eden - Romans 5:12

"God's will, however, was that man be restored to his state of victory and dominion, and he made the provision for this by the sacrifice of Jesus, in that He came to redeem us from our sins."

What is the first battle we confront when we give our lives to Christ?

The moment you accept Jesus into your life as your Lord and savior, the first thing you must war against is sin. Sin is the major bottleneck and entanglement of every man. The temptations and enticement of sin have just one purpose – to destroy a man eternally. The book of Romans, specifically chapter 6, exposes this concept.

Romans 6: 11 In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus. 12 Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires.

What is the destiny of believers in spiritual warfare? Believers are destined to overcome sin and Satan. This is achieved through the power of Christ's sacrifice and the power of the Holy Spirit.

When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, the kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man who sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So, the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? From whence then hath it tears? He said unto them, an enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest, I will say to the reapers, gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

— MATTHEW 13:19, 24-30

Until you reign over them, you are yet to fulfil your destiny in Christ-likeness. According to the scripture, this is the truth we must know to be free.

Romans 6:12: Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

As a believer, you are not called to live a defeated life. That is not your destiny. You are called to live an empowered life that can withstand and resist the enemy's schemes.

1 John 4:4 says, "You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world."

Are there evil spirits attached to every sin? In the Bible, we were told in Ephesians 6:12 that our battle is not against flesh and blood. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Evil spirits are attached to each sin we ever committed when we were sinners. At conversion, these spirits are cast out, but they try to reinforce to bring back those sins into our lives. Even Apostle Paul, in the book of Romans 7: 15 talks about how he struggles to do that which is right. "For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I".

Why is it important for believers to keep themselves clean? The beginning of spiritual warfare is to fight and keep yourself from being repossessed by those evil spirits in charge of those sins. Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart as holy, useful to the master of the house, ready for every good work (2 Timothy 2:21 –ESV).

When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out. And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

— LUKE 11:24-26

If a man becomes a honourable vessel, it becomes difficult for him to be used by unclean spirits.

What are the dangers of not waging war against these evil spirits? If you fail to fight these evil spirits, they will mess up your life with sinful characters, and this is what we call believers' warfare.

Why are believers exhorted to be sober? In 1 Peter 5:8, the Bible says, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour," believers are encouraged to be sober and vigilant after salvation because the battle does not end in salvation. Like a roaring lion, the devil still seeks whom he may devour. When a man is sober, he is sensitive. Sensitivity helps one to recognize the baits of sin and Satan.

A sober man is also sensitive to the voice of the Holy Spirit.

What is the good fight of faith? At salvation, life's actual battles begin, and this fight is called a good fight of faith. It is first a fight of faith because all that the devil truly is after in the life of a man is his faith. The Bible says the just shall live by faith. This means when there is no faith, a man is not just.

When does the believer's warfare begin? Salvation is the beginning of every believer's warfare against our adversary, the devil who still walks about seeking believers to devour with sin and its consequences. It was not until Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist and heard the confirmatory voice from heaven that the devil came to tempt. Once you become confirmed by heaven through salvation, get ready to face the temptations of the devil.

What is the trial of faith? If you say you are born again, your profession (of being born again) will be tested; that's the trial of the faith you confess.

Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

— 1 PETER 5:7-9

And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

— LUKE 22:31

The devil doesn't believe you until he tests your confession of faith;

Who or what confirms the salvation of a believer? The believer's salvation is confirmed by both heaven and hell after the believer's warfare against sin.

What happens when believers allow the evil spirits in charge of sin to repossess them? If you allow evil spirits in charge of sin to repossess you after being born again, the battle or spiritual warfare will be doubled. It's called 'WARFARE WITHOUT' and 'DEPRAVITY WITHIN' and this makes our warfare very difficult.

How will believers fare in spiritual warfare when there is no sin in them? But when there's no sin within, you can fight with ease and victory is sure.

Why are some ignorant believers conquered in spiritual warfare? Unfortunately, many believers believe that the battle is fought and finished at salvation without passing through tests or trials of their confession - such ignorance is very dangerous.

Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

— 1 PETER 5:7-9

When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out. And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

— LUKE 11:24-26

Such ignorant believers are easily overcome by sin through demonic resistance against their faith. You should read that again.

What are the methods used by the powers of sin to repossess believers? The powers behind every sin you overcame at salvation can try to come back through human weakness and frailty, your neighbors' bad examples, and keeping the wrong company as a believer.

What becomes of believers who hang out with evil people or friends? If you pitch your tents near Sodom, that is, hang out with old sinful friends, and spend so much time with people in the far country, you will never be victorious. Besides, the Bible warns in 2 Corinthians 6:14-18 to stay away from unbelievers or people of darkness. You will easily be influenced by their actions. In Genesis 19, we see Lot's life being changed negatively due to his association with evil people of Sodom.

What is the fate of a person who is easily accessed by sin and fleshy desire? If you are too accessible to sin- fleshy desires, and worldly ambition, you will not fight well unto victory.

What becomes of believers who forget that they are in an ongoing warfare? If after salvation you forget that there's a warfare going on, you will be defeated. Every believer is a soldier on a battlefield expected to put on the whole armor of God.

Why does the devil cause indolence in the lives of believers? To defeat some believers, the devil will try to cause indolence among them to hinder their ability. His weapons of attack include making a believer doubt God's word, misinterpret it, or ignore it. He may also cause the believer to forget the word of God he heard (Matthew 13:3-9). He may attack you with spiritual slumber or plant some things inside you while you sleep physically and spiritually.

Why does the devil take believers out of fellowship and the study of God's word? The devil does this to make sure the believer does not have enough of God's word to fight.

When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, the kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man who sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

— MATTHEW 13:19, 24-26

God's word is needed to fight the devil as seen in Matthew 4 during the temptation of Jesus Christ in the wilderness.

What are the tools used by the devil in times of warfare? In times of warfare, he uses people, things, and circumstances available to resist the faith of believers by all means.

When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

— JOSHUA 7:21

Now the serpent was more subtile than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? And the woman said unto the serpent, we may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.

— GENESIS 3:1-6

He may fight you through the corruption of the human heart, through the mind and eye gate, or through the influence of an evil companion, a close acquaintance, and people of class and wisdom.

What are the results of an unguarded or unprotected eye gate? (1 Corinthians 15:33; Proverbs 22:24-25). The eye gate of Achan was opened by the enemy in the war front and without minding the reign of bullets, he coveted what he was supposed to destroy.

And the Lord said unto Moses; stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen. And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the Lord overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them. But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. Thus, the Lord saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore. And Israel saw that great work which the Lord did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the Lord, and believed the Lord, and his servant Moses.

— EXODUS 14:26-31

And it came to pass, that at midnight the Lord smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle. And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and break every tree of the field. Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

— EXODUS 12:29, 30; 9:25-26

This was a man that survived many wars and possibly, the task masters of Egypt under the supervision of Pharaoh. This was a man who was probably born in Egypt during the time of the Egyptian bondage; attacked, but survived the magicians and sorcerers who used enchantment against the children of Israel in Egypt. Achan must have been around when the red sea was in the way of the Israelites and saw the miraculous divine intervention. He must have seen many miracles and eaten manna in the wilderness. He must have seen the Egyptian soldiers destroyed in the red sea.

He must have seen how the power of God healed the bitter water, rained manna in the wilderness, overcame the great Amalek (Exodus 15:22-23, 25, 26; 16:1-4, 12-18, 21-25, 31-35; 17:1-16). Even if Achan was not among the ten spies sent to spy Jericho, he knew them by their names. He was around when the wall of Jericho collapsed. He knew what happened to all the first-born males during their last night in Egypt. He was aware of the plagues in Egypt - how hail smote many of them except Goshen, the land where the Israelites occupied.

He was there when God judged and killed Nadab and Abihu and why He did so. He was a trained soldier who fought gallantly at Rephidim until they prevailed and discomfited the Amalek (Exodus 17:8-16). Achan was enlisted as one of the great soldiers that fought King Arad and utterly destroyed their cities. He fought the Amorites, smote them with the edge of the sword and possessed their land from Aron unto Jabbok. However, all these did not stop him from committing atrocity. It is important to guard your eyes as a believer.

He was among the soldiers that fought and smote Bashan until there was none left alive and they possessed their land (Numbers 21:1-3, 21-32, 33-35; 25:16-18; 31:1-24).

SPIRITUAL WARFARE 2

What is the real cause of Achan's death? With such records, what killed him must have been the opening of his eye gate to the devil. Among the spoils, he spotted a goodly Babylonian garment, two hundred shekels of silver and a wedge of gold and coveted them.

Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus. For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry. Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, the field of blood. For it is written in the book of Psalms, let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishopric let another take.

— ACTS 1:16-20

He took them but never used them because he was stoned by his fellow soldiers.

What is the end result of evil communication? Be not deceived, evil communications corrupt good manners. Avoid those who encourage you to look at forbidden things lustfully.

THE WEAPONS OF OUR WARFARE

Should we all be part of this warfare? You must know that there is a great warfare which everyone must face, especially believers. The scripture clearly states that the world is a battle ground between God's children and Satan's agents.

What makes the devil furious with you? Once you repent and raise the banner of the King of kings anywhere, the devil will become furious with you.

What is the devil's main aim for fighting believers? The main aim of the devil's fight against you as a believer is to bring you under subjection, in order to obey the laws in the territory they claim to own. Another aim of his is to make sure the believer is not in right standing with God, the Father. He always wants to have something to use against the believer before the Father (John 14:30)

Are Christians constantly engaged in warfare? It's important to grasp that the Christian journey is often likened to warfare, wrestling, and fighting.

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

— 2 CORINTHIANS 10:3-5

And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men, I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for tomorrow we die.

— 1 CORINTHIANS 15:30-32

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

— EPHESIANS 6:12

As Ephesians 6:12 reminds us, 'Our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.' If there's no battle to fight and war to engage in, Paul would have told us otherwise

Why you should pull down the strongholds in your hearts and mind?

As 2 Corinthians 10:4-5 advises, 'For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ.' By dismantling these strongholds, we make room for God's truth and presence to reign in our lives.

bring light in our darkened understanding.

Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

— EPHESIANS 4:18

The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

— JEREMIAH 17:9

For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

— ROMANS 7:18

There's a stronghold to pull down right within our heart to bring light in our darkened understanding.

There's a stronghold built by the devil in our human mind. We need to destroy the powers of darkness in our minds and defiled conscience. We need to liberate our deceived heart that's desperately wicked.

Where exactly does our warfare begin? Our warfare begins within ourselves, in the battleground of our hearts and minds to conquer the effect of the fallen man nature within us.

What kind of warfare are believers called to fight? Believers are called to fight and pull down the old man, the body of sin, the carnal nature, the flesh and every filthiness right inside us as stated in Ephesians 4:22-24 (NIV):

"You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; to be made new in the attitude of your minds; and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness."

We must destroy and completely pull down the inward enemy, the dominating tyrant and the mortal nature from the root.

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

— 1 TIMOTHY 6:12;

And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we can incorruptible. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so, fight I, not as one that beateth the air: But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

Every rooted evil imagination, every high thing and evil forces that reign over us must be cast out. All bad character in us must be brought down to obey Christ.

What must one do if the person is to fight well in this warfare? We mustn't give up like Achan but we must fight a good fight of faith. We must strive for mastery to obtain an incorruptible crown. We mustn't beat the air or run this race with uncertainty. We must bring our body under divine control and submission to God's will to avoid the mistake Achan made. Apostle Paul made this clear in 1 Corinthians 9:26-27 (NIV):

"Therefore, I do not run like someone running aimlessly; I do not fight like a boxer beating the air. No, I strike a blow to my body and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize."

Are there spiritual invisible forces against believers? In Ephesians 6:12, the Bible makes us understand that there are spiritual invisible forces fighting to bring believers down to disobey God.

Who are the agents being used by the enemy? The people we see in our midst doing wrong things physically are the agents of those invisible forces. Among these are deceitful spirits and false teachers who propagate lies and lead people astray. They are not our main enemies, source or the strongholds of our conflict.

How do evil forces possess their agents? These evil forces plant into the evil imaginations of their agents to stop God's children from coming to the knowledge of Christ and His word. They also possess their agents through various means, including deception, manipulation, and yielding to sinful desires.

What is the main aim of the devil's agent? They want the knowledge of God to die so that they can establish their evil knowledge here on earth. That's why they use their human agents to fight believers who have the knowledge of God.

What should believers do to survive this warfare? Believers should arm themselves with the resources provided by God to fight, wrestle, war and defeat them here on earth. Believers can guard against demonic influence by staying rooted in God's Word, cultivating a vibrant prayer life, and surrounding themselves with fellow believers for support and accountability. James 4:7 instructs, 'Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.'

How important is the armor of God for believers in this warfare? The armor of God is of paramount importance for believers in spiritual warfare.

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

— EPHESIANS 6:10, 11, 13

Ephesians 6:11 exhorts believers to 'Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes.' The armor includes the belt of truth, breastplate of righteousness, shoes of the gospel of peace, shield of faith, helmet of salvation, and sword of the Spirit.

Without the armor of God, believers are vulnerable to the enemy's attacks and strategies. Believers have all the armor provided by God to fight every spiritual warfare. When you put on this armor and use them rightly, then you will be sure of victory. Without putting on the whole armor, you will not be strong to fight and will surely lose the war.

What should we do before we can become strong in the Lord to engage in this warfare? Before you can start fighting and become strong in the Lord, you must have died to sin and become alive unto God.

What is the benefit of having victory over sin? Victory over sin brings believers nearer to harvest the benefits of salvation and without this; you may profess salvation but will not harvest its benefits.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

— ROMANS 6:11, 12

Without victory over sin, you may learn how to pray, how to prosper, sow seed and keep every other Christian doctrine without harvesting the benefits of your salvation. It is good to repent and forsake your sins, but if you fail to keep your salvation, you will not harvest its benefits. Just as seed planting is important in farming, harvesting what you planted is also very important.

What is required of a believer that still falls into sin? 1 John 1:9 says, 'If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.'

Believers who commit sin after salvation are called to awake from sleep and cast off the works of darkness.

And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now, is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

— ROMANS 13:11-14

Believers who walk in dishonesty are called to amend their ways. Believers who now engage in rioting, drunkenness, chambering, in wantonness, strife and envy must stop, if they must harvest the seed of salvation they planted. They are called to put on Christ and make no more provision for the flesh, to fulfill their lusts as stated in Romans 13:14

What is expected of you as a true believer? Believers are called never to go back to lying but to put off every evil deed.

Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

— COLOSSIANS 3:9-14

They are called to put on the new lifestyle, not the old sinful lifestyle.

Believers are called to represent Christ in this sinful world. God's elect should possess God's nature like humility, show of mercy, kindness, meekness, etc. God have given us his nature and has provided us with weapons to fight, so there's no need to search for it.

Is there any acceptable excuse for a believer that still falls into sin?

The resources and power are available already. No believer has any excuse to live an impotent, cold, fruitless life.

What is the effect of ignorance and not being able to appropriate our weapon as believers? The problem with many believers is ignorance and inability to appropriate the weapons and remain obedient to God.

To win, you must obey God's word and fight using your authority and power in His word because you cannot win without Him.

Can spiritual warfare be fought using human techniques?

Spiritual warfare cannot be fought and won by human techniques; you can only win the war by fighting with the whole of God's armor on.

Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, this is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.

— ZECHARIAH 4:6

But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

— JAMES 4:6-7

With the fruits of the Holy Ghost and submission to God in place, if you resist the devil, he must flee.

What are the effects of not putting on the whole armor of God obediently? Without putting on the whole armor in obedience, people who seemed to be strong and courageous in the past have fallen victims in the day of spiritual warfare. No matter how strong, intelligent and powerful you look, if you fail to put on the armor in obedience, you will fail woefully in the day of battle. Our only hope of victory is to put on the whole armor because self-confidence will disappoint you.

What is the most effective and sufficient weapon? The only effective and sufficient weapon is God's grace and armor, not your strength or help from anyone.

And he said unto me, my grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

— 2 CORINTHIANS 12:9

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

— EPHESIANS 6:13-18

This is because at your limit or weakness, God takes over your battle and gives you victory.

Why a believer should be vigilant? A believer should be vigilant because the territory where we live is dominated by unbelievers. We must be vigilant and not pretend as if there's no battle to fight. If you are lazy and neglect to prepare and fight, you will be taken captive.

What should a believer do when he hears the word of God? Once you hear God's word, don't postpone it; act immediately.

Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

— LUKE 8:12

But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

— 2 CORINTHIANS 4:3-4

That's what we mean by putting on the armor and being obedient.

Why should a believer be proactive and avoid delay when the word of God comes? Any delay can empower the devil to weaken your faith, blind your eyes or steal the word of God completely. Taking away the word of God from you or causing you not to obey is one of Satan's dangerous strategies.

Why must a believer study the scriptures? You must study the scriptures to avoid being a novice but to become well equipped with God's word for effective battle. Without the above, the devil will cause you to magnify yourself and bring you into his trap; cause you to take wrong decisions, to make painful mistakes, and get you into scandals, reproach, disgrace and shame.

Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.

— 1 THESSALONIANS 2:18

Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

— 1 TIMOTHY 3:6, 7

Let's talk about divine ability, the overcomer's secret in our next topic.

DIVINE ABILITY, THE OVERCOMERS' SECRET

Why is it necessary for a believer to be armed with God's armor while maintaining consciousness of spiritual warfare? The divine armor on you and the consciousness that a battle is going on is the assurance that you will win in every battle. If the devil or his agent succeeds in convincing you to believe that there's no battle going on or that there's nothing like spiritual warfare, you are defeated already.

What are the sources of heaviness on believers? Every believer is in heaviness brought by the devil and his agent through manifold temptations. He is fighting every believer to prevent us from having access to our incorruptible inheritance that cannot fade away.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

— 1 PETER 1:3-9

Our faith as believers must be tried by the devil here on earth before we can have access to our undefiled possession.

Does the beginning of a believer's faith guarantee final victory? The beginning of our faith in Christ doesn't give us final victory without trials and temptations through warfare until the end.

Believers can fall many times and rise at the beginning of their faith but at the end of the last victory, they shall never fall.

What happens to a believer's past spiritual victories and exploits when that believer falls? If any believer falls at the last, all his past victories will not bring his soul into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

— 2 PETER 1:10-11

As a believer, you cannot be deeply involved with the affairs of this life without having eternity in view and still become a good soldier of Christ. An army cannot fight two different wars and win successfully at the same time. Immediately you die or the rapture takes place, all that you are fighting for now without Christ will become worthless in the reality of eternity. We are called to live for eternity. Hence, we must have eternity in view, here and now.

Why you must guard your heart: You must guard your heart against the love of money, fame, evil pleasure and covetousness in everything you do in life.

Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

— 2 TIMOTHY 2:3-4

For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

— 1 TIMOTHY 6:10-12

Having victory over the works of the flesh is fighting the good fight of faith (Hebrews 12:1-4; Matthew 5:28-30; Hebrews 10:25; 1 John 5:4-5; Revelation 2:11).

Born again Christians are called to lay aside and put off anything that will bring us back into a life of sin; this is the second deliverance. There are more kingdoms to conquer after salvation. It's after this that believers will begin to enjoy their salvation. We must continuously look unto Jesus and believe in Him to finish the work He started with us at salvation. Believers who claim God's grace to fight other powers but neglect the grace that fights the return of sin after salvation are not fighting the good fight of faith. If you are carrying the real cross, there's something to fight, things to endure, shame to despise and contradictions to overcome.

Those who got married and overcame fornication still have to overcome adultery and other sexual perversions. Those who have conquered outward sin still have internal sins to overcome.

Why you must avoid the sin of evil communication: The secret sin many must avoid is evil communication or association to enable us to have proper identification with believers.

Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

— 1 PETER 2:11

You cannot be in the midst of people with contradicting faith and fight the good fight of faith. Believers are called to guide their faith jealously, which is more precious than the whole world. Our faith is a priceless treasure which we must hold fast. We must fight never to exchange our faith with anything. Believers who underestimated the devil's craftiness fell in the day of battle because they didn't appropriate God's armor.

GOD'S ARMOR CONSISTS OF:

- The breast plate of truth (Ephesians 6:14; Luke 12:35; 1 Peter 1:13).
- The breastplate of righteousness (Ephesians 6:14; 1 Peter 1:14-16).
- The shoes of the gospel of peace (Ephesians 6:15; Romans 1:16-17).
- The shield of faith (Ephesians 6:16; Hebrews 11:32-34; 1 Peter 5:9; 1 John 5:4).
- The helmet of salvation (Ephesians 6:17; 1 Thessalonians 5:8).
- The sword of the Spirit (Ephesians 6:17; Matthew 4:1-11; Psalms 119:11; Hebrews 4:12; 1 Peter 3:15).

What are the benefits of abiding in Christ? The beauty of our warfare is that once you abide in God, He promises never to leave us alone to fight against the enemies in the battle field.

Our defender, the Lord Jesus has passed through the fires of betrayals, deception, conspiracy, injustice, evil devise and whatever we are going through or will ever go through. The comforting word is that He will help us. If you remain royal, obedient and faithful to the end, He will satisfy you and bless you immensely.

What should one do to have victory? As we resist the devil, separate ourselves from the tempters by closing every gate through which temptations comes and keep praying for divine grace, we shall have victory.

There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

— 1 CORINTHIANS 10:13

For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

— HEBREWS 2:18

Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

— PSALMS 34:19

But now thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

— ISAIAH 43:1-2

SPIRITUAL WARFARE WITH FASTING

WHAT IS FASTING?

What is fasting? The dictionary meaning of fasting simply means; to abstain from food, to eat sparingly or abstain from some food. In the scripture, Jesus fasted for forty days and forty nights without food and water (Matthew 4:2; Luke 4:2; Matthew 15:32; Mark 8:1-3; Jonah 3:5-7). From the above text, Jesus decided not to eat and drink in order to fast and pray. During the fasting, Jesus ate nothing throughout the period He fasted.

And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits; For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

— MARK 6:7, 20

Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so, will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

— ESTHER 4:16

And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, this day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

— ACTS 27:33

The multitude who followed Him for about three days didn't eat because they had no food to eat.

That's not real fasting. If you don't have time to eat because of your busy schedule, it's not biblical fasting. Biblical fasting is praying without taking any food or drink (Water can be taken though for health purposes).

It could mean skipping one meal to have enough time to pray.

What does fasting entail? Fasting is creating time to seek the face of God in order to pray effectively.

To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One. Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth. Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, my way is hid from the Lord, and my judgment is passed over from my God? Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? There is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

— ISAIAH 40:25-31

It's waiting upon God and before you do this, you have to know the God you want to seek.

Why it is important to know God before waiting on him? Prophet Isaiah challenged the children of Israel to know God before waiting on Him. Whom you equal God to in your heart is a very important question that needs an answer before waiting on Him. You need to look around you to admire God's handiwork and everything that God created. All things known and unknown to you are God's creation and

He knows them and called them by their names. He is mighty and strong in power and can never fail. He knows you and your ways in detail. He is everlasting; the only creator that no one created, the one whose understanding is unlimited.

You must know that the God you want to wait on is all powerful and can never be weary, but increases in strength. He gives power to the faint and those that has no might, He increases their strength (Isaiah 40:29). All creation is bound to faint, grow weary, get old and expire, but God never faints or grows weary.

What God promised those that wait on him: He has promised that they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength.

And he said, Tomorrow. And he said, be it according to thy word: that thou mayest know that there is none like unto the Lord our God.

Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the gods? Who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with brass.

— EXODUS 8:10; 15:11; 39:6

After renewal, they shall mount up with wings, not like other birds, but as eagles. They shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Before you can seek God through fasting and find Him, you have to know Him and his thoughts about you. You have to know his concern; how great and powerful He is.

Is there anyone or thing that is equal to God? Our God has no comparison, none to be equal to Him in any ramification. You must understand without any doubt that He is greater than the greatest and more powerful than the most powerful among the creatures. It's foolishness to liken God to anything, animate or inanimate put together. He is bigger than the biggest. All gods bow before Him and his holiness is glorious, fearful in praises and wonders. He created everything in heaven and on earth; He created the sons of the mighty and none can match Him, compare unto Him or be likened unto Him. Who's the God that says we should wait for Him? The God that says we should wait is our next topic.

THE GOD THAT SAYS WE SHOULD WAIT

Why is knowledge very important while waiting? If the gathering of the presidents of the world asks you to wait for them, you will consider it more important to any other thing. If an enemy, someone you don't know or one who is unprofitable to you asks you to wait for him, you may not consider it very important.

And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, what is his name? what shall I say unto them?

— EXODUS 3:13

Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt. And Moses said unto God, who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt? And he said, certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

— EXODUS 3:10-12

And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, what is his name? what shall I say unto them?

— EXODUS 3:2, 13

If you are told that someone asked you to wait for him, you will like to know the person first. Knowing the name of the person will determine whether you are going to stay or not. So, let us search for God's name to understand who is asking us to wait for Him through fasting and prayer.

And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the Lord which saidst unto me, return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee: And Jacob asked him, and said, tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there.

— GENESIS 32:9, 29

Remember, Moses ran away from Egypt to save his life from Pharaoh. Now, someone he doesn't know His name is telling him to go back to Egypt. In addition, the person told him to meet with Pharaoh, and not just to go back to Egypt. Another very important thing is that this person was going to become Israel's source of deliverance from the bondage in Egypt.

Moses had been in the palace for forty years and understood both Pharaoh and the Egyptians. They were very powerful, wicked, merciless, unforgiving and can kill with no feeling of guilt. Pharaoh and the highest court of the Egyptians condemned Moses to death and so, they were looking for him to kill. Now someone he didn't know very well neither did he know His name is saying he should return with an assignment to deliver a whole nation who was in bondage and the source of the national economy. The only thing that made Moses give attention to this discussion was the encounter he had with the burning bush- the bush was on fire, but it was not consumed!

Before Moses could accept such an assignment which was worse than a suicide mission, he insisted on knowing the name of the person sending him. When God told Jacob to return back to his father's house while Esau was alive, he demanded for His name.

With these examples, it's therefore good for you to know the name of the God who is asking you to wait on Him through fasting and prayer.

What are the effects of waiting on God without knowing Him? The reason why many people wait on God with complaints, grudges, impatience and perhaps wait in vain is because they don't know God.

And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons. And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush. When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

— ACTS 7:21-22, 29-32

It's good to take time to study about God - who He is, what His names are, His attributes and what He is capable of doing before waiting on Him through prayer and fasting. Moses didn't move out to carry out divine assignment until he discovered God's name. He needed to know the name just in case the children of Israel ask him. This will help him and the children of Israel to know the power and the authority of the one sending him. Likewise, you need to know the power and the authority behind the person that is asking you to wait on Him in prayer and fasting. People enter into ministry, business and other ventures rashly without being sent or knowing who sent them. That's why when problem arise, they run up and down until the devil traps them with counterfeit help.

It's of no use waiting on someone who will not defend you in times of trouble. Moses knew the history of the Egyptians and the children of Israel in details. He cannot just return to Egypt without assurance that the power and authority sending him back is bigger than that of the Egyptians.

The importance of being assured that God will hear and answer your prayers before you embark on waiting on him Most times, people make the decision to do things just by trial without assurance. It's wrong to go into fasting without the assurance that your prayers will be answered.

DECISION BEFORE ACTION

Abel was sure that his sacrifice would be accepted by God before he engaged himself in carrying out such sacrifice. That was why he refused to compromise with his brother Cain even unto death.

And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. And in process of time, it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the Lord. And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

— GENESIS 4:2-4, 8

Abel knew that his sacrifice will please God and bring respect to him. Even when his brother threatened to kill him, he didn't budge. If you are going to join us in this fasting, in waiting upon God, you must be convinced with unshakeable decision.

And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters: And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died. And Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:

— GENESIS 5:13-14, 22

When Noah took decision to build the ark, he was convinced that he was doing the right thing. As a result, he invested all that he had and did all that God told him to do. Noah was the only person who didn't cry, regret or die in the time of trouble.

Why Noah's generation perished His generation perished for not obeying God's word because they never believed that God was able to save the world through the ark. Also, those who joined Noah were saved because they believed God.

Now the Lord had said unto Abram, get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee: And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. So, Abram departed, as the Lord had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran. And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Canaan, they came. And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Sichem, unto the plain of Moreh. And the Canaanite was then in the land. And the Lord appeared unto Abram, and said, unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the Lord, who appeared unto him. And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, having Bethel on the west, and Hai on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the Lord, and called upon the name of the Lord. And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

— GENESIS 12:1-9

If you must join us to wait on God in this program, you must know God. Abraham answered the call of God because he believed that God is able to keep the promises, He made to him.

Why God's promise cannot fail: It took time, but God's promises never fail, it must come to pass.

And the Lord gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. And the Lord gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hand. There failed not ought of any good thing which the Lord had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

— JOSHUA 21:43-45

Abraham never struggled over anything because he believed that no power can take from him what God promised him.

And Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the south. And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold. And he went on his journeys from the south even to Bethel, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Hai; Unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the Lord.

And Abram said unto Lot, let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be brethren. Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left. And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere, before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar. Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other. Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom. But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the Lord exceedingly. And the Lord said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward: For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever. And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered. Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee. Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the Lord.

— GENESIS 13:1-4, 8-18

Because of that knowledge, he always waited on God. To maintain peace, he allowed Lot to choose where he wanted to live and God strengthened his promise to him thereafter.

What fueled Abraham's faith in God despite the attack of the enemy?

The enemy fought God's promises to Abraham but because he knew God, he never stopped waiting on Him. While waiting, he entertained angels, rescued Lot from his captors; kept the doctrine of circumcision and prayed for Sodom and Gomorrah.

And the Lord visited Sarah as he had said, and the Lord did unto Sarah as he had spoken. For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, as God had commanded him. And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

— GENESIS 21:1-5

At the end, the God he waited for never disappointed him, even at his old age.

What do you do when God says wait? If God says to you: “wait,” you better wait because at His arrival every knee must bow. When God assured Jacob to leave Laban, he defended him before his worst enemy, Esau.

And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids. And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept. And he erected there an altar, and called it Elelohe-Israel.

— GENESIS 33:1, 4, 20

His elder brother who vowed to destroy him with about four hundred soldiers withdrew from his decision. This could only be possible when Jacob waited on the God that can do all things.

Instead of a fight, his brother Esau changed his mind; he embraced him, fell on his neck, kissed him and they both wept for joy. This can only happen by obeying God’s invitation to wait in prayer and fasting.

How powerful is our waiting on God through prayer and fasting?

Prayer and fasting can reverse evil intentions and cause your enemies to favor you. Those who know their God can wait, no matter how long.

Let's see how God introduced Himself through His names,
"introduction to God's names".

FOUR

INTRODUCTION TO GOD'S NAMES

THE LORD GOD OF ABRAHAM, ISAAC AND COB

The way God introduced himself to Moses When Moses enquired of God's name, He told him, I am the LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Moses knew the history of Israel very well and all Israel believed that it's only the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob that can deliver them from Pharaoh and the Egyptian bondage. They had prayed and expected such deliverance and had been waiting for His intervention.

And God said moreover unto Moses, thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name forever, and this is my memorial unto all generations (Exodus 3:15)

The name God used when he appeared to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob:

And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name Jehovah was I not known to them.

And God said moreover unto Moses, thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations. And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name Jehovah was I not known to them.

— EXODUS 3:15; 6:3

He is the God that entered into covenant with Abraham and fulfilled it in the midst of impossibilities.

And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.

— GENESIS 3:6-8

They had done so many things to escape the bondage of Pharaoh but failed. Their only hope of freedom was God and they had cried endlessly to Him in their prayers.

What Moses did immediately he heard God's name: Immediately Moses heard of this name his faith was quickened and he believed God. More so, this is the only name the children of Israel were waiting for to escape the bondage of Egypt. In the time of hopeless situation, this same God appeared to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob by the name JEHOVAH.

What becomes of situations, challenges and problems when the name of God is mentioned? In every situation, whenever this name appeared, no power stands or questions his authority.

Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;

— EPHESIANS 2:19-20

So, to Moses and the children of Israel, their deliverance is assured with this name in the battle field. The primary reason many believers remain in their bondage today is that they don't know how God appears to them. But I can help you know if only you can believe. Listen to me, most great men of God you hear of in the scripture or wish to meet today, physically are not better than some of us in any way.

Why God intervened and delivered previous generations: The reason people in their generation were delivered is because they believed in what they told them. You have only one step to your deliverance and that step is for you to believe what I am telling you here and now. If you will stop whatever you are doing now, repent of all your sins, ask God to forgive you all your known and unknown sins, your deliverance will be unlocked.

What happens to anyone that determines to forsake his sins and turn to God? If you will determine to forsake those sins, ask Christ to come into your life and take over, you are on the path of total freedom. In this program, as you read and pray the prayers attached to this book, your bondage will be broken. Through this program, your own God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob has appeared; only believe.

What Moses did when the reality of God's name dawned on him: Immediately Moses confirmed the reality of the name that appeared to him, he boldly left for Egypt to confront Pharaoh.

Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)

— GALATIANS 1:1

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

— PSALMS 91:1

Now that you are hearing this name, you can confront and conquer your Pharaoh.

The God that is being spoken of? The God we are talking about is the father of our LORD Jesus, who can raise the dead and quicken mortal bodies. His name is the Almighty with no minus to his mightiness.

What happens when you genuinely repent? As you go to Him in prayer after you have genuinely repented, He will break your bondage. There's safety in abiding in his presence and in dwelling in his secret place.

What does Elohim mean? Do you know that the word ELOHIM, which is translated God is used about 2,500 times in the Old Testament and it means "THE STRONG ONE". No true Israelite jokes with the name of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, likewise true Christians.

What happens when the name of God is mentioned? Once that name is mentioned, victory is assured and bondages are broken. The name Almighty God is a threat to the devil and all his agents put together. Let me reveal to you one important secret: Do you know that all the names of God the father is inside Jesus? If you don't know before, begin to use the name of Jesus to break your bondage now that you know.

What happened when Jesus came into the world fully equipped with God's name? When Christ came to this world fully equipped with these names, He broke every bondage.

And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people. And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers' diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatic, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them. And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judaea, and from beyond Jordan.

— MATTHEW 4:23-25

Through this name, He healed all manner of sicknesses and diseases.

As He was teaching people about the Almightyness of God, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, all those who were possessed were delivered.

When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus saith unto him, see thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

— MATTHEW 8:1-4

Devils were cast out, lunatic destroyed and people with palsy were set free at the mention of the name of Jesus. For the first time since the time of Moses, a leper was cleansed when he listened to the sermon of Christ. Immediately Christ saw that this leper believed Him, He said, be clean and that was all.

What will happen to you when your faith in Christ is confirmed? As you read this book and pray the prayers in it, Christ is watching you.

When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick: That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

— MATTHEW 8:16-17

Immediately your faith is confirmed, no bondage will hold you down. What you are hearing is the word of Christ, not mine, so start believing and your problem will be solved. If you are the type that seeks prophecies, what you are hearing now is prophetic. I prophesy that as many as are reading this book, I command the demons behind your problem to be cast out, in the name of Jesus.

When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus saith unto him, see thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them (Matthew 8:1-3)

How powerful are the words you are hearing from this book? The word you are hearing now can cast out any unclean spirit troubling you and heal every part of your body under satanic attack.

Can people be attacked from the grave? There are people whose attack comes from the grave yard and at times they see themselves with the dead.

And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him. And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish. And he saith unto them, why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

— MATTHEW 8:23-24, 26

They eat and drink foods cooked in satanic kingdom in their dreams. Some are suffering from the same sickness, poverty, and hardship their parents had. Jesus with the name Almighty dealt with such evil forces.

There are other people who suffer disaster, great storms and losses. The ship of their lives carrying their wealth is under demonic arrest. With the name God Almighty, Elohim or the strong one, you can overcome. For some others, as soon as they are about to make it to the next level, great storms, fire outbreak strikes and waste their life time efforts.

What Jesus is willing to do for you today Today, Jesus will arise and rebuke your storms and your life, business and everything you do here on earth will experience great calm.

And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered. And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

— LUKE 6:6, 10

When people's hands are demonized There are people whose hands are demonized and anything they touch never prospers. If they give such hand in marriage, it will not work but today, all these things will become things of the past if only you believe. With the name Elohim, translated God, the strong one, you will be delivered. Demons enter into a human body to cause all manner of problem. Let's look at how demons enter human bodies.

HOW DEMONS ENTER THE BODY

When a demon enters a body When demons enter the body, they cause people to be sick, weak and confused. At times they bring fear, lack, poverty, sufferings and deaths.

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

— JAMES 4:7

Most times they enter through sin or by evil consultation with their agents or people who have familiar spirits.

What happens when you get attached to false prophets? If you are attached to false prophets, witch doctors or any satanic agent, demons can possess you. Most of these prophets are demonized and they practice fortune telling and hypnotism. Whichever way they enter, their aim is to oppress their victim if they fail to resist them.

How to resist false prophets and the evil spirits that are attached to them

The only way to resist them is through hearing what you are hearing now and by prayer. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

— JAMES 4:7

By the time you finish this program, I have a counsel to give you.

What you should do to enjoy freedom and victory I am convinced that your bondage will be broken after this program but one thing is very important - avoid sin. The problem with many deliverance ministers and deliverance candidates is rooted in their inability to leave sin alone. This must be emphasized if you must keep your deliverance and enjoy abundant life. As you repent, confess your sins and forsake them, God's Spirit with all his names enters into you. If you go back to sin, God's Spirit leaves you and evil spirit enters and takes over you.

Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

— JOHN 5:14

This is one of the most important pieces of information you need as you pray the prayers in this book.

Does God's spirit stay in the same body with demons? God's Spirit doesn't stay in the same body or place with demons.

But the Spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord troubled him. And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

— 1 SAMUEL 16:14-15

What you should do to retain God's presence If you want God's presence, stay away from sin and keep yourself clean. You may be asking; how do I achieve this? Let's see how Peter and Paul counselled the believers in their time.

Why you should be sober and vigilant? Peter wrote to his deliverance candidates in 1 Peter 5:8, to be sober and vigilant just as I am writing to you now. You ask why? The reason is because the demon you cast out is not dead, no matter how much you pray for them to die.

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

— 1 PETER 5:8-9

Neither give place to the devil.

— EPHESIANS 4:27

They are still walking around your environment looking for another opportunity to repossess you.

What are the assignments of the devil? Their assignment is to steal, kill and destroy you like they did to others in your family, class or area.

Why a believer should not be addicted to anything? So, you have to be careful in all that you do. As a believer, you have to be abstemious, not addicted to anything or allow anything have rule over you which is against God's word. Do things moderately without going to the extreme. With this, you will not give the devil a place in your life to re-enter you again. That's what it means to keep vigilant watch over your life.

Guide your heart against any occult practice and destroy any satanic property in your possession. Avoid close relationship, friendship with sinful neighbors, friends and relations; yet live peaceably with them as much as possible.

If you follow this advice, God's Spirit will remain in you and you can cast out demons anywhere. Your body will be the property of God and He will defend you at all times.

The benefits of living a righteous life With a life of righteousness, any time problem comes, they will see a danger sign all over you. They will see the name of Christ in you and the wise demons will run away.

When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

— MATTHEW 12:43-45

Guide your heart against any occult practice and destroy any satanic property in your possession. Avoid close relationship, friendship with sinful neighbors, friends and relations; yet live peaceably with them as much as possible.

But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

— ROMANS 8:11

And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

— MARK 16:17-18

If any foolish demon tries to attack you, you will cast them out.

What do you do when the devil resists you despite being righteous? If they resist, you will burst in tongues and they will bow and surrender to the authority of Christ in you. You need to get a copy of my book titled, “21/40 nights of decrees and your enemies will surrender”.

Why you should maintain your deliverance: If you maintain your deliverance, you are entitled to tread upon serpents and scorpions and over all the powers of the enemy and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

The importance of functioning with God’s authority: With this title deed, and authority, no problem will last long in your life. All believers are authorized to destroy demons and the diseases they carry.

Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

— LUKE 10:19; 9:1

The powers behind the problems in the world put together is less than the power Christ gave to a single believer.

Is a believer entitled to use the name of Jesus? Finally, believers are entitled to use the name of Christ to ask anything.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask anything in my name, I will do it.

— JOHN 14:12-14

Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again, I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

— MATTHEW 18:18, 19

If you ask with faith, not doubting, you will receive because your well-being glorifies Christ's name on earth.

When a believer makes request in the right way: If you ask rightly with the name of Christ, God will happily release the answer.

Believers can bind and loose anything and no other power can stop it. The heavenly host is waiting for sinless believers to bind or loose and they will place a heavenly seal upon it. No power from any satanic kingdom can see a heavenly seal and tamper with it. The devil cannot authorize any demon, evil spirit or his agents to approach a heavenly seal, how much more touch it.

Why you should seek God's power above other things: I advise you, while others are seeking for money, silver; gold and other things, seek for this power. With this power, Peter conquered a problem that lasted for forty years.

With this power you can walk into a class of people you never dreamt of in life. With this power, you can gather wealth and riches. With this power, you can speak to proud demons and say, hold your peace and come out and they will obey. With this power, you can do practically anything and nothing can stop you. With this power, all your problems will bow and surrender forever.

I AM THAT I AM

In answer to Moses' question, God answered and said, "I AM THAT I AM" is my name.

He told Moses that He appeared to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob by the name of God Almighty, but not by his name JEHOVAH. None of the fathers of faith- Abraham, Isaac or Jacob knew God by the name JEHOVAH.

What is the meaning of the name Jehovah? The meaning of JEHOVAH as translated in the Old Testament is the covenant God.

Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

— ACTS 3:6-8

And God said unto Moses, I Am that I Am: and he said, thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I Am hath sent me unto you.

And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name Jehovah was I not known to them.

— EXODUS 3:14; 6:3

John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

— REVELATION 1:4

JEHOVAH means the one who was and is to come, the eternal one.

Does God change? God can never change. He is immutable and no situation or circumstance can change Him. Right from the beginning, He laid the foundation of the earth, and heaven is his handiwork. God cannot get old, weak or be destroyed; He is JEHOVAH and remains God.

And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands: They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment; And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

— HEBREWS 1:10-12

Other things will wax old as garment and perish, but God remains the way He is.

When did God start being God? God existed before any mountain existed.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days:thy years are throughout all generations. Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth:and the heavens are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure:yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment;as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: But thou art the same,and thy years shall have no end.

— PSALMS 90:2; 102:24-27

God is older than the oldest because He created all things.

The effects of not knowing God: You need to know this God because lack of the knowledge of Him will hinder your deliverance and deny you of great things. Great people who don't know God can be taken away in the midst of their joy or progress. But believers will be taken away from joy to eternal joy and everlasting peace.

We are surrounded by powers that hate our existence and our only savior is this God.

Is God still God to all generations? In all generation, He remains God and can never change because His nature is unchangeable.

What He said yesterday is unchangeable because even His word is God that changeth not. By telling Moses that He is the “I AM THAT I AM” means that his promises to Moses will be fulfilled, no matter how strong Pharaoh is. By introducing Himself to Moses with his name “I AM THAT I AM” means, I will not stop or end until I finish Pharaoh. God was serious when He told Moses to confront Pharaoh and tell him, ‘Let my people go’. He wants to stop the cries of the children of Israel and take them to the Promised Land.

Now, God is no longer talking to the children of Israel but you.

What is God’s desire for you? He wants to stop your oppression and deliver you from whatever bondage you are in now. He wants to visit the garden of your life and kill every serpent in it. He wants you to start building the ark of your salvation because you must not die in the evil flood. God wants to take you away before Sodom is destroyed.

For I am the Lord, I change not; therefore, ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

— MALACHI 3:6; 3:17

And the Lord said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows; And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

— EXODUS 3:7-8

God wants to promote you above all that hate and wish you dead. He will cause your enemies to come and bow down before you. All your dreams of greatness must come to pass and you will rule over all your enemies.

The purpose of this program is to make you great and to lift the name of God above every other name in your life. Whatever is called problem, oppression, etc. will bow down at the mention of His name. The great “I am that I am” will confront and destroy all your problems.

What’s the purpose of this program (Spiritual warfare)? In this program, all your enemies must be stopped. Your Pharaoh will unconditionally release you and let you go to your place in life. You will rise cross your red sea and walk out of all bondage. God will not allow you to die in this condition, no, it’s not in his nature to do so. No more delay, no more negotiation with Pharaoh because this is your time of deliverance. This is time to awake, to put on your strength and your beautiful garment. You must shake off anything that is holding you down and walk out in freedom.

And his brethren also went and fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants. And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in the place of God? But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive. Now therefore fear ye not: I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake kindly unto them.

— GENESIS 50:18-21

And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead. And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the Lord, as ye have said. Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also. And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, we be all dead men.

— EXODUS 12:30-33

You must arise for the light of your deliverance has come and the name of God “I AM THAT I AM” is standing before your Pharaoh. Let’s talk about God’s names for your deliverance in our next topic.

GOD'S REDEMPITIVE NAMES FOR YOUR DELIVERANCE

What is God's plan for his people? In God's plan to deliver man from the bondage of the devil, He revealed Himself through some names.

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

— ISAIAH 60:1

The first one in my list is JEHOVAH JIREH, which means “The Lord will Provide”

What the devil does when you start opposing his kingdom and reign:

Immediately the devil saw that Abraham was going to oppose his kingdom, he attacked his wife Sarah with barrenness. The devil hates and fights anyone that has a covenant with God, so he attacked Abraham. Not only did he attack him with barrenness, but he also attacked him with lack and influenced him to go to Egypt for help.

And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son. And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah Jireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the Lord it shall be seen.

Your own famine may be different from Abraham's, but the truth is that famine here represent problems.

Without asking God for a way out, he went down to Egypt. On his arrival, he told a lie and compelled his wife to follow suit being that he was operating out of divine coverage. Though he later escaped famine, yet the barrenness refused to go until his old age. But Abraham was consistently walking with God until God intervened and blessed him with a son called Isaac at his old age.

Much later, God asked Abraham to give him back the child through burnt sacrifice. As he presented his only son Isaac for a sacrifice in obedience, God Himself provided a ram in place of Isaac instead.

What is meaning of Jehovah Jireh? That's the first time the name JEHOVAH JIREH came, meaning the Lord our provider.

And there was a famine in the land: and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land. And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon: Therefore, it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, this is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive. Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee. And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, what is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

— GENESIS 12:10-13, 18

And the Lord visited Sarah as he had said, and the Lord did unto Sarah as he had spoken. For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac.

— GENESIS 21:1-3

The benefits of repenting and coming under God’s covenant: If you repent and cue into God’s covenant, God will provide all your needs and provide you a way of escape from all your problems. So, as you pray having in mind the name “JEHOVAH JIREH” all your problems will be solved. “JEHOVAH JIREH” will provide and make a way where there’s no way as you get involved in this program.

And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, my father: and he said, here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering? And Abraham said, my son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so, they went both of them together. And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son. And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah Jireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the Lord it shall be seen.

— GENESIS 22:7-8, 13-14

When you give your life to God through Christ, He can give you anything, no matter the size. Deliverance gets easy when you abandon your life to Christ and pray in faith.

What is the evidence that God is willing to provide all things for us through Christ? For God to send His only son to come and die for us is serious evidence that every other thing can and will be provided for us through Christ.

Jesus answered and said unto her, if thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

— JOHN 4:10; 3:16

So, once you link up with Christ through repentance, everything will be provided.

What does Jehovah shalom mean? Another name that is very important is “JEHOVAH SHALOM” meaning, “The Lord our Peace”. Judges 6.24: “Then Gideon built an altar there to the Lord and called it, The Lord Is Peace”

The predicaments of God’s people while under the control of the Midianites: During the days of Gideon, the Midianites tormented them for seven years.

And the Lord said unto him, Peace be unto thee; fear not: thou shalt not die. Then Gideon built an altar there unto the Lord, and called it Jehovah shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

— JUDGES 6:23-24

It was so bad that everyone in Israel was practically living in fear both inside their own houses and in their farm land.

What did God assure Gideon when he encountered him? When Gideon eventually encountered God, he became so much terrified, but God assured him of peace and life. From that day, God’s presence brought peace and abundant life to believers on earth and much more at the appearance of Christ.

What one should do when in trouble or under the bondage of fear: So, when you are in trouble or suffering from fear and all manner of demonic harassment unto death, call upon JEHOVAH SHALOM and peace will show up.

Why God allowed his son to be wounded for us: God allowed His only begotten son Jesus Christ to be wounded or chastised so that we can have peace. Don't forget, it is by His stripes that we ARE healed, NOT 'will be' healed.

But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

— ISAIAH 53:5

And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

— COLOSSIANS 1:20

If you understand the full reason Christ accepted the stripes, you will not allow sickness and disease to feast on any part of your body.

The benefit of Christ's death on the cross: The shedding of the blood of Jesus Christ on the cross brought peace into every believer's life. I hope you understand the kind of peace I am talking about?

What is the meaning of Jehovah Tsidkenu? The next redemptive name for our deliverance is “JEHOVAH TSIDKENU”, meaning, “The Lord our righteousness”. This name is found in Jeremiah 23:6, where it refers to the future Messiah who will reign in righteousness.

What one should do to reign in life with Christ: A day is coming in this present world when righteousness will reign without resistance under the government of Christ for one thousand years.

In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, the Lord our Righteousness.

— JEREMIAH 23:6

At that time, the children of Israel and all believers washed by the blood of Christ will live safely. To be a partaker of this kingdom, you must get born again now and begin to practice righteousness.

So, I counsel you to receive Christ, remain in Him and pray fervently to enjoy the righteousness of Christ here and now.

What is the meaning of Jehovah Rapha or Jehovah Ropheka? The next redemptive name for our deliverance is “JEHOVAH RAPHA” or “JEHOVAH ROPHEKA” which means, “The Lord healeth us” or “I am the Lord thy Physician”.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

— 1 CORINTHIANS 1:30

This name is found in Exodus 15:26, where God declares Himself as the healer of Israel if they obey His commandments.

What the children of Israel did after God delivered them from Egypt:

After the deliverance of the children of Israel from the bondage of Egypt, they were so happy.

And said, if thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

— EXODUS 15:26;

Surely, he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows:
yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.
But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him;
and with his stripes we are healed.

— ISAIAH 53:4-5

When they saw the great work of God, Miriam who was the sister of Moses led them in praise and worship; and all Israel praised God (Exodus 15:1-22).

Lessons to pick from the attitude of the children of Israel at Marah:

But when they came to a place called Marah where they encountered bitter water, they forgot all the goodness of God and murmured against Moses.

At that point, Moses prayed and God showed him a tree and immediately he cast it into the water, the water became sweet; that tree is Christ. No matter your present situation, even if you are at the point of death, never you murmur against God or his servant. You need to believe God for your deliverance and pray in faith. It was in Marah that God entered into the covenant of healing with the children of Israel.

Step to take to benefit from God's covenant of healing: Today, God is calling you into a covenant of healing and if you respond now, you will receive both divine healing and divine health. All you need is to repent, acknowledge your sins, stop complaining or shifting blames. Listen to God's voice, not the voice of your problems or anything that contradicts His word. Do the right thing, obey God's commandment; keep his words as much as you can and your deliverance will be made accessible.

And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore, the name of it was called Marah. And the people murmured against Moses, saying, what shall we drink? And he cried unto the Lord; and the Lord shewed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he proved them,

— EXODUS 15:23-25

And said, if thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

— EXODUS 15:26

He promised to exempt you from diseases and every problem that wastes others. What Christ did on the cross is enough to put every obedient believer out of grief and sorrow. The devil has no legal right to afflict, torment or oppress believers who know their right.

Is the sacrifice of Christ enough? Jesus was stricken, smitten and afflicted so that we can be freed from every problem. He was wounded, bruised, chastised and beaten with stripes for believers to have peace, be healed and remain in health.

The word you are hearing now is enough to stir up faith in you, bring healing to your body and keep you healthy for the rest of your life. God allowed Jesus to receive stripes in order to destroy our infirmities and our sickness.

What is the meaning of Jehovah Nissi? Another name for our deliverance is, JEHOVAH NISSI, which simple means; “The Lord our banner”, “The Lord our victory” or “The Lord our captain”.

When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick: That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

— MATTHEW 8:16-17

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

— 1 PETER 2:24

This name is found in Exodus 17:15, where Moses builds an altar and declares it as a memorial to Jehovah Nissi after the Israelites' victory over the Amalekites.

When God manifested with the name Jehovah Nissi to rescue his people and grant them victory: This redemptive name came when the Amalek fought against the children of Israel in the wilderness, after they left Egypt. It was their first battle after they left the bondage of Egypt. At that time, Moses choose Joshua and other soldiers to defend the children of Israel.

And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah nissi:

— EXODUS 17:15

At the end of the battle, God gave the children of Israel victory. Right there, Moses built an altar and called it, “JEHOVAH NISSI, meaning; “The Lord is our banner, victory and captain”.

The privilege of being associated with Jehovah Nissi: What a privilege to have God as your banner, victory and captain in this violent world we live in. No wonder why Israel won almost every battle of their life thereafter.

In the reference above, they defeated the Canaanites and utterly destroyed their cities. When they came to the Amorites, they smote them with the edge of the sword and possessed their land from Aron unto Jabbok (Numbers 21:21-32; Deuteronomy 2:24-25 Joshua 10:12-14). When they fought Bashan, they smote them until there was no survival and they possessed their land (Numbers 21:33-35; Deuteronomy 3:1-18).

The Midianites came out with determination to fight them but the children of Israel slew all the males under the banner of the Lord (Numbers 25:16-18; 31:1-24, 48-54). When God is your banner, victor or captain, you will never be defeated as long as you remain loyal to Him.

Can the devil block the way of God's people? When they came to Jericho, there was a strong roadblock against the children of Israel. That's to tell you that no matter how close you are to God, one day, the enemy will block your way.

And when king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the south, heard tell that Israel came by the way of the spies; then he fought against Israel, and took some of them prisoners. And Israel vowed a vow unto the Lord, and said, if thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities. And the Lord hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place Hormah.

— NUMBERS 21:1-3

Even now, it may be possible that your way is blocked and you are really suffering.

What to do when the way is blocked: When their way to the Promised Land was blocked, they prayed to God for direction. As soon as they received divine instruction, the impossibility became possible.

Can one lose a battle when God is on his side? You cannot continue to lose battles when the Lord becomes your banner, victor or captain.

And when king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the south, heard tell that Israel came by the way of the spies; then he fought against Israel, and took some of them prisoners. And Israel vowed a vow unto the Lord, and said, if thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities. And the Lord hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place Hormah.

— NUMBERS 21:1-3

You need to invoke the power attached to JEHOVAH NISSI and all your problems will bow before our captain.

What is the meaning of Jehovah Shammah? The next redemptive name in line is “JEHOVAH SHAMMAH” which means, “The Lord is Present” or “The Lord is there”. This name is found in Ezekiel 48:35, where it describes the future city of Jerusalem as “The Lord is There.”

In that chapter, we are presented with the life in the eternal city where God will be manifesting without interruption. Even now as a believer, God will manifest in your situation as you cue into this program. God also promised all believers who keep his commandment of his ever-abiding presence even till the end of the world.

What is the meaning of Adonai? God’s name “ADONAI” which is translated “MASTER or LORD” implies ruler-ship over his creation.

It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The Lord is there.

— EZEKIEL 48:35

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Again, I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

— MATTHEW 28:20; 18:19

God has absolute dominion and in Him is the ability to guide aright the affairs of men who are obedient to his commandments. Let's move on to discuss our father's attributes.

OUR FATHER'S ATTRIBUTES

The attributes and qualities of God include the following: There are some inherent characteristic and qualities that pertain to God alone, which He doesn't share with any mortal. When He enters into such office, no one dares to enter or share such place with Him.

Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord God.

— EXODUS 23:17

We are talking about, God the father, the son and the Holy Ghost. First, let us discuss the fatherhood of God to all believers who are qualified to be sons by reason of receiving Jesus Christ as their Lord and savior.

Examining the fatherhood of God over believers: God is the father of all believers through the covenant of redemption. You are therefore required to commune with Him bearing in mind that you are talking to your father who created all things and also able to do all things.

But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

— MATTHEW 6:6, 8, 32

Before you ask God anything you must be convinced that He is your father and that He would love to do anything to make you happy as his child. If God sees you as his child, you must recognize Him also as your father.

How should believers approach God? You should approach God as a child in prayer, not like a slave before his master.

Why many people ask and do not receive anything from God: The reason why many ask and don't receive is because they are not really God's children by redemption. Even some of the redeemed are not bold, so when they ask, they don't receive because they ask in doubt.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

— MATTHEW 7:7-11

If you are born again and truly know your right, you will get whatever you ask when approach God in faith ready to receive.

What does waiting on God mean? No true believer will seek God genuinely and fail to find Him; and if you knock, it shall be opened to you (Matthew 7:7). This is what we call waiting upon the Lord, which is the subject of consideration. But before you can wait effectively, you must know Him and believe that He is your father. You must know his names, attributes and be convinced that He is your father.

Is God capable, willing and ready to answer us? Other things you have to know is that your heavenly father is better, richer and more willing to answer your prayers than your earthly father. He is more ready to help you more than all the good fathers on earth can help their loving children. You cannot ask your earthly father for bread and he will give you a stone, never. No good earthly father can give his loving child a serpent instead of a fish. If it's rare and almost impossible for a sinful earthly father to refuse to give their children what they ask, then our heavenly father will never refuse to answer you when you pray. Moreover, your earthly father may not even have what their earthly children ask for. But our heavenly father has all that we will ever ask and is ever willing to give us more than we can ever ask.

What does it mean to fear God? To fear God means, to have respect for his words and commandment. It's to do everything possible even in the face of death to obey Him and stand against anything that opposes his word.

For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

— MATTHEW 7:8

Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

— PSALMS 103:13

If you have respect for your father, you will do everything possible to keep his rules; that's what we mean by fearing God.

What creates boldness in believers to request things from God?

Believers who keep God's commandment are bold to ask for anything, and it will be given to them.

What qualifies believers to receive from God even without asking?

There's a level to which you get to in your relationship with your heavenly father and you will begin to receive certain things even before you ask.

And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

— LUKE 15:20-24, 31

There's a level of consecration you have with a determination to remain faithful to God, and you will get more than you ask.

It is an insult for a believer to be enslaved: Understand that all that God has belongs to you. It's an insult for a child of God to live like a slave, to accept poverty or failure. All that God has, everything good belongs to believers even before they ask.

FIVE

QUALIFICATION OF GOD'S CHILDREN AND WRONG PRAYERS

Are children of God supposed to resemble God? True children resemble their parents not only physically but in character also. So, to prove that you are a child of God, you must behave like God in character and have his nature. In times of prayer, God's children can pray all manner of prayer, both judgmental and mercy.

Will the rebellious people obtain mercy when they repent? But if the rebellious repent, they will obtain mercy.

What does it mean to put on the whole armor of God? Putting on the whole armor of God means, being equipped with all the weapons of warfare to stop any determined enemy that has vowed to terminate your life or divine program before time.

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

— EPHESIANS 6:10-18

It means, being able to stop Saul-like satanic agents before they get to our Damascus to kill us (Acts 9:1-11). Believers must not allow Saul-like satanic agents to threaten and fulfill their threats on them. We must gather together to pray against evil threats even if it means getting them blinded to provoke their conversion.

What does it mean to pray all manner of prayers? Praying all manner of prayers presents two options to satanic determined agents. For Saul, his own was blindness or conversion that led to his call to ministry, life or death.

Believers must be strong in the Lord; put on the whole armor of God to match up with the wiles of the devil and his agents. If you don't pray all manner of prayer, satanic agents may not receive the arrow of blindness and the option of repentance, deliverance or divine call. If you don't pray all manner of prayer, Saul will fulfill his threats against the Damascus believers and the apostles will not receive power to continue their ministry.

And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word,

— ACTS 9:8; 4:29

If you pray only prayer of mercy, satanic agents will carry on with their mission unchallenged. Many of them like Saul will never be blinded unto repentance for divine call. If you pray only judgmental prayer, Saul-like agents will all be blinded unto death without experiencing divine mercy. That's why we need to allow the Holy Spirit to intercede for us when we don't know what to pray as we should.

The importance of the Holy Spirit to a believer: In times of confusion and weakness, when you don't know what to pray, you must allow the Holy Spirit to help you. Only the Spirit of God can rightly pray in times of confusion and believers' weakness. He knows every repentant Paul and the unrepentant Ananias and Sapphira because only Him can search the hearts. Only the Holy Spirit knows what's in the mind of the Spirit and only Him can rightly pray according to the will of God. No matter your length of experience in the Lord, you can never be perfect and knowledgeable as God's Spirit.

And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

— ACTS 9:6, 8

And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, and desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, by stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus. And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

— ACTS 9:1-2; 4:29-31

Likewise, the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

— ROMANS 8:26-27

Even if you think you are vast in knowledge, having travelled far and near, very spiritual and eloquent, won many battles; remember, you are not the Holy Spirit. With your unenlightened mind and human limitations, you can make mistakes but God's Spirit cannot. Samuel with all his prophetic gifts almost anointed Eliab instead of David. Look at what the word of God said in; Acts 10:9-20; 16:6-10; Isaiah 58:8; 2 Corinthians 3:5; Job 8:9 and Proverbs 3:5-7.

The meaning of praying amiss and praying wrongly: Now, what is God's decision for believers who sincerely pray amiss- wrongly and ignorantly? We need to know this because man in his best state equals to vanity when compared with the Almighty.

O Lord, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

— JEREMIAH 10:23

And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely the Lord's anointed is before him. But the Lord said unto Samuel, look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.

— 1 SAMUEL 16:6, 7

And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the Lord's servant? Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

— ISAIAH 42:16, 19, 20

There was a time that Jeremiah was praying earnestly for God's mercy for the unrepentant children of Israel. It was a wrong prayer and God asked him to stop. Praying all manner of prayer or knowing what you are supposed to pray but deciding to pray wrongly is not acceptable to God. It's wrong to pray for your enemies to die when you are supposed to pray for their repentance. However, God may not reject you if you pray wrongly when you are ignorant.

The advantage of praying aright: If you pray aright, God will hear you and answer you but if you pray wrongly, He will not answer you. It's better to pray aright and when you don't know what to pray, speak in tongues (Romans 8:26-27).

Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah. Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely, they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

— PSALMS 39:5-6

And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim. Therefore, pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee.

— JEREMIAH 7:15-16

We are moving forward to the next series with a topic titled, praying with love, not with hatred.

PRAYING WITH LOVE, NOT WITH HATE

What is the God-kind of love? Whether you are praying in weakness or in confusion, you must have God's kind of love in your heart. God's kind of love will not want any sinner to perish or die in their wickedness. However, God doesn't force anyone because of their right of choice making.

What does the power of choice or the right of choice making entail? Everyone has the freedom of choice to serve God or the devil, to repent or to die in sin. (Joshua 24:15; Jeremiah 18:7-10; Matthew 23:37-38; Revelation 22:17).

The truth is that whether you pray for your enemies to die or live, repent or perish, succeed or fail, one thing must happen because of the right of choice. But the most important thing is that believers must have God's kind of love in their heart.

Should a believer have hate in his heart? In the New Testament dispensation, hatred is totally out of place in the life of believers.

I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: That thou mayest love the Lord thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land which the Lord swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

— DEUTERONOMY 30:19-20

Ye have heard that it hath been said, thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

— MATTHEW 5:43-48

What are the effects of praying with hatred in the heart? We must not pray with hatred in the heart, no matter the kind of prayer you engage in. Believers are commanded to love their enemies, bless them that curse us and do good to them that hate us. We are also commanded to pray for those who despitefully use us and persecute us. How do we interpret the above command? For me, it is to put away hatred from our hearts, pray all kinds of prayer and do the right thing at all times to all people. Always let your motives be right; do all things, including prayers without hypocrisy. Pray without regarding iniquity in your heart; forgive all that offended you and pray according to God's will in faith.

What the genuine love of God entails: Genuine love of God in the heart allows God's Spirit to dwell in us freely.

This doesn't mean that believers should assist a drunkard to get drunk or drug addicts to get worse. Your child can offend you but don't hate him or her to the extent of wishing him or her death. So, when I say "die" in my prayers, what I mean is breaking away of the power behind the evil action. Witches, sinners and law breakers who refuse to allow the spirit behind their evil action to break will die or separate with the demonic spirit.

What happens when we pray judgmental prayers for a witch or wizard that is determined to repent? I strongly believe that no amount of fall and die prayers can kill any determined witch, wizard, sinner or law breaker who is determined to repent.

If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

— LUKE 11:11-13

Does God's mercy supersede our human will and desire in people's lives? Ananias argued with God and would have preferred that Paul should remain blind or even die but God rejected his desire. Ananias was a true child of God but his knowledge was limited about Paul. He only knew about Paul's satanic assignment but nothing about God's call upon his life. He was a disciple in Damascus with the details of Paul's mission to cart away believers for execution. He must have led the Damascus believers to pray that God should strike Paul with blindness and possibly kill him. They all saw Paul as an unrepentant wizard who must die by God's fire.

They must have prayed and declared death for anyone who would not allow evangelism to move forward in Damascus. The comment of one of their leaders when he heard that Paul was blind confirmed all the wishes and the desires of Damascus brethren.

And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name. But the Lord said unto him, go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

— ACTS 9:11, 13-16

None of them knew that he had had an encounter with Christ and was already called and had answered the divine call of God. They never knew that from birth, the wizard Paul was chosen by God. He was a chosen vessel to bear Christ's name before the Gentiles, Kings and the children of Israel. Though the Damascus brethren prayed against the evil agenda of Paul, yet God didn't find them guilty for their ignorance in prayers. He knew that they prayed according to their level of knowledge. He truly answered their prayers and blinded his eyes, but didn't stop his agenda for Paul after he repented. He was determined to show him great things he must suffer for His names sake and Paul obliged.

When King Ahab heard God's word after murdering Naboth, the Jezreelite, he repented in sack clothes and in ashes. He started fasting until God changed his judgment against him.

It is right to teach people how to pray aright. But you must be careful not to backslide while trying to correct believers who ignorantly pray like the Damascus brethren or Prophet Jeremiah.

What should characterize our hearts as we pray? Pray as you are led, with a perfect heart, full of divine love without hatred or an unforgiving spirit (Matthew 18:21-35; Mark 11:25-26; Luke 6:35-37).

And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, and hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.

— ACTS 9:10-14

But there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the Lord, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the Amorites, whom the Lord cast out before the children of Israel. And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly. And the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days: but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.

— 1 KINGS 21:25-29

And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim. Therefore, pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee.

— JEREMIAH 7:15-16

Turn with me to the next series - Introduction to God's attributes.

SIX

GOD'S ATTRIBUTES 1

Don't forget that we were talking about fasting or waiting upon the LORD before we backed off a little to talk about who He is, His names and His nature. Now let's talk about his attributes. According to;

God's infinite nature explained God is "INFINITE". He is everywhere at all times and in every situation. He is eternal with no beginning and no ending. No one can run away from God or go to where he cannot be located by God because He is everywhere. Before you were born, He was and is and will forever be.

Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

— PSALMS 139:7-12

In heaven, ever before He created heaven, God was and after the creation, He still is and will ever be as He is. God is in hell and He is the only person that the fire in hell cannot affect. No matter the speed of the fastest aircraft and other creatures which possess the strength of the morning in the air, they are as slow as the snail even in their fastest motion. The fastest movement in the sea is slower in speed because before they think of moving, God is already there in a split of time.

God's hand can reach to the ends of the earth and go beyond the places that science has not known or will ever know. All the activities of the powers in the dark kingdom are more exposed to God than the brightest of day.

Can anything be hidden from God? Night and day cannot hide anything from God, so it's foolishness to think that there is a secret you can hide from God. In the presence of God, darkness exposes everything in it.

I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name,
O thou most High.

— PSALMS 9:2

Can we communicate with God from anywhere and how fast can God answer us? It's a great privilege to know that you can communicate with God from wherever you are and He answers immediately. Our God is the highest, can never be brought under and has never been brought under. This is the God that says we should wait on Him, the most high that is higher than the highest.

He is the Most blessed and Potentate, who only hath immortality; to whom be honor and power forever. The four-beast rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, LORD; God Almighty.

Who is the antichrist? Note that the word translated "beast" in Revelation 13:1 is "thereon" and that means "vicious, wild beast" referring to the antichrist.

And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

— REVELATION 4:8, 11

But “this four-living creature” are representatives of angelic beings (Ezekiel 1:5, 10, 13, 14; 10:12, 14, 15, 20 and Isaiah 6:1-4).

What are the duties of angels? There are different orders of angels. They all worship God and minister to the holiness of God. They praise God saying, “So finally, God gets all the glory’.

What is the fate of fallen angels? Fallen angels and fallen men are forever banished from heaven. All rebels are out of sight.

What are the duties of redeemed men and holy angels? Holy angels and redeemed men now worship God. They pour unceasing praise unto God in worship and adoration (Revelation 5:9-14; 7:9-12; 11:16, 17; 19:1-9).

Another attribute of God is that “GOD IS ALL WISE” and there’s no problem He cannot solve.

Did God create all things? It’s indisputable that the earth and all that is in it emanated from God. His works are manifold and He made them by his wisdom. He founded the earth in his wisdom without any contribution from evil forces and other creatures. In his understanding, He established the heavens without any human assistance. The wisdom of all the scientists with all their discoveries put together is lighter than nothing before a dot of God’s wisdom.

And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, the four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

— REVELATION 4:8-11

O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

— PSALMS 104:24

The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.

— PROVERBS 3:19

Wisdom and might exclusively belong to God without any argument by any force. God only, can change times and seasons. He has removed powerful Kings and can remove any King without notice or negotiation. He sets Kings, gives wisdom unto the wise and knowledge to them that lack understanding. Because He created all and owns all, He can give to those who ask Him.

He can make the most foolish person wise and make the wisest among men foolish. None owns anything that was not given to him by the owner and the creator of all. He knows everything from the root because nothing exists without his knowledge. No one owns anything permanently; He gives and takes because the depth of the riches is only determined by Him. He doesn't share wisdom, knowledge and understanding with any, He owns all and gives to whoever He wants to give. This is the God that says that we should ask, seek, and knock. It's not a waste of time to wait on Him and that is why you need to know Him before waiting on Him.

The foolishness of seeking wisdom and knowledge outside God:

Seeking for wisdom, knowledge, understanding or anything outside of God is the greatest mistake anyone can make on earth. God is wisdom personified. James, a true servant of God told the twelve tribes of Israel who were scattered abroad to focus their seeking of wisdom only in God.

Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

— DANIEL 2:20-21

O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

— ROMANS 11:33

Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

— COLOSSIANS 2:23

If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

— JAMES 1:5

He said, if anyone lacks wisdom, let him ask God and that is what we must do in this program. God who sees the end from the beginning through his servant James gives you an express invitation to ask Him for wisdom.

In our search for divine attributes, “GOD IS OMNIPOTENT” meaning that “GOD IS ALL POWERFUL”

What does the omnipotent attribute of God entail? In the beginning, before life began, He was and all things were created by Him, including the heaven and earth.

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

— GENESIS 1:1

Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O Lord, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in, in the Sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established.

— EXODUS 15:17

This earns Him the title “OMINIPOTENT GOD”. People who are short-sighted, who lack knowledge or know God seek for power outside Him.

The advantage of having an intimate relationship with God: What made Moses great and powerful is not his physical strength or his educational qualification, but his intimate relationship with God.

O Lord God, thou hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?

— DEUTERONOMY 3:24

For great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised:he also is to be feared above all gods.

When Moses discovered who God is and the power in His name, he surrendered to Him. When he surrendered all that, he learnt from the Egyptian occult house for God's knowledge, he became great.

What is the fate of all greatness outside the knowledge of God? Every greatness outside divine knowledge is useless and will fade away with time. It's unprofitable to waste time seeking to get anything outside God.

How the knowledge of God's capacity and ability helped Moses? Immediately Moses proved that the Personality sending him back to Pharaoh is greater than Pharaoh, his faith was built up. You can challenge any problem with God's name and win victoriously. Through his name, everything you need can be provided and no sorrow is attached to his provision.

The advantages of God's name Through God's name, you can have peace, righteousness, divine presence and dominion over sin. God is a father to all that find Him through Christ and He empowers them with his own righteousness.

The advantages of accepting and submitting to God's will: When you cue into His will and plan through Christ, He will never leave you nor forsake you. That's why He is called the "INFINITE GOD", eternal, with no beginning and no ending. He is the all-wise God, and none has this attribute. He only can solve all problems because He sees the end from the beginning and nothing is hidden from Him. His decision is always right, He had never made any mistake and none can find Him guilty. Introduction to God's attributes-2 is our next topic.

SEVEN

GOD'S ATTRIBUTES 2

The advantages of knowing the all-wise God: He is all-wise and can make you wiser than you are now.

When He showed Moses his greatness, Moses automatically became great. He touched Moses with his mighty hand and everything that Moses ever touched became prosperous. This is the God that we are about to wait on, please you are invited to join us. If you accept Him as your captain or banner, you can never lose any battle in life. No decision on earth is complete without the decision to follow Him, serve Him and allow Him to lead you.

What David benefitted by his submission to God's wisdom: When David, the son of Jesse accepted Him and submitted to His leadership, he defeated every enemy including the Goliath of his generation. Because he submitted to divine wisdom, God made him brave, courageous in battle before any enemy. Not only that, God made him skillful and very intimidating before his enemies. With these qualities from the all-wise God, David led the children of Israel to subdue the Philistines, Canaanites, Moabites, Ammonites, Arameans, Edomites and the Amalekites. Because he submitted himself to divine wisdom, he became a renowned army general, a champion of war who never lost any battle. David's submission to divine authority helped him to conquer the supposedly impregnable Jebusite city of Jerusalem and made it his capital.

Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him?

he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

I know that thou canst do everything, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.

— JOB 40:2; 42:2

If you submit to God's wisdom, no enemy will prevail over you; try it.

Do you know that it was King David who started the business of slaying giants in Israel before other army officers followed suit?

What you will benefit when you submit to God's wisdom: All the powers standing as giants in your place of birth or workplace can be slain if you submit to divine wisdom and authority.

David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah. And the king and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither. Nevertheless, David took the strong hold of Zion: the same is the city of David.

— 2 SAMUEL 5:4-7

Moreover, the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint. And Ishbibenob, which was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the light of Israel. And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the giant. And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaareoregim, a Bethlehemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant. And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea the brother of David slew him.

— 2 SAMUEL 21:15-21

You will raise soldiers like David who can do what you can longer do, go to where you cannot go even at your old age. One of the secrets of King David was that he regarded and fought Israel's enemies as God's enemies and dedicated his spoils of war unto the Lord.

How the submission to the will of God helped David: But the major secret was his submission to God's will, His wisdom and authority. His submission to divine wisdom made him the greatest King in Israel with an unusual wisdom in administration.

And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept. And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool dieth? Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him. And when all the people came to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, so do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else, till the sun be down. And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people. For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

— 2 SAMUEL 2:5-7; 3:32-37

Then came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh. Also, in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the Lord said to thee, thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel. So, all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the Lord: and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years

— 2 SAMUEL 5:1-4

And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabeshgilead, and said unto them, Blessed be ye of the Lord, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him. And now the Lord Shew kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing. Therefore, now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

In his administrative wisdom, he mastered the right manner of approach on how to carry everyone along. He spoke to his subjects with wisdom and as a result, they became extremely loyal and devoted to him. By his divine wisdom, even his enemies find it difficult and almost impossible to identify his faults.

He was the accepted shepherd boy, the harp player who played harp to calm the troubled spirit of King Saul. In his submission to divine wisdom, he became the warrior who slew Goliath in his youth and became the hero of his people. Later, he became the King, who reigned first at Hebron and thereafter, at Jerusalem over all Israel. By divine wisdom, his reign was totally free from idolatry because he was loyal to God. By divine wisdom, he built a palace, opened highways, trade routes and secured the prosperity of the kingdom materially.

The amazing qualities that helped David: David was a man of deep piety, contrition and close communion with God. He esteemed the presence of God above every earthly treasure and sought for God's leading before any major decision.

David never joked with his relationship with God or trade his position in heaven with any material thing. He valued God's presence above every other.

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

— PSALMS 84:10, 11

Then said David, O Lord God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the Lord said, He will come down.

— 1 SAMUEL 23:10-11

And it came to pass after this, that David enquired of the Lord, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the Lord said unto him, Go up. And David said, whither shall I go up? And he said, Unto Hebron.

— 2 SAMUEL 2:1

Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? Who hath directed the Spirit of the Lord, or being his counsellor hath taught him? With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding? Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

— ISAIAH 40:12-15

He never depended on his human wisdom but always enquired from the Lord for guidance before action. To maintain his relationship with God, he forgives his offenders. David understood very well like Job did that no thought can be withheld from God's wisdom.

The evidence of God's omnipotence: As we continue to search for divine attribute, we discover that God is "ALL POWERFUL, OMNIPOTENT". He gathered the whole waters on earth in the hollow of his hand. He meted out heaven with the span and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure. He weighed the mountains in a scale and the hills in a balance. This is the God that the devil and his deceived agents fight against. In his power, He teaches the wise wisdom, but none can teach Him. He counsels all, instructs all and none can counsel or instruct Him because man in his best is all together lighter than nothing in wisdom before the LORD. In the path of knowledge, understanding and justice, the best among the professors depends on Him to learn. What man describes as big is small in the eyes of God because the nations put together are as a drop in a bucket. They are counted as the smallest dust when measured in divine balance. When He takes up the isles, they are very little in size as nothing in description. No man can fathom the powerfulness of God because they will fail in their comprehension. This is the God that people doubt his ability when they pray because they lack knowledge of whom He is. This is the God who says, "wait for me, seek me and you will find me". This is the God I want to introduce to you and those who seek Him will find Him.

Ah Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee:

— JEREMIAH 32:17

And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

— DANIEL 4:35

But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, with men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.

— MATTHEW 19:26

Look at the heaven and earth; they were made by God without any contribution from any power outside God. There's absolutely nothing that God cannot do and with Him on your side, all things are possible. The reputation of the bests among men are reputed as nothing before Him. The wisest among men is as good as nothing because He can discover errors, unknown to them. In the army of heaven, He does anything He wants, how much more among the inhabitants of the earth.

It's foolishness to question God's decision because His verdict is final.

Limitations and impossibilities are the language of mortal man; these don't exist before God. Doubts, failures, discouragement and hopelessness is a foreign language before the 'ALL POWERFUL GOD'; they are non-existent before the Almighty.

The things to avoid as you wait on God: In times of prayer, waiting upon Him, seeking His face, make no room for fear, doubts, unbelief or discouragement. These are negative emotions before God; they belong to unbelievers, agents of the devil and their master the devil. Deliverance preachers, teachers and ministers have emphasized so much about the powers of the devil, which may be true; but the “POWER OF GOD” dominates every other power. It is important to note that the power the devil has belongs to God. But it is corrupt, defiled and contaminated the day he rebelled against the Almighty.

And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Likewise, also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

— JUDE 6, 8

And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

— REVELATION 15:3

Believers who are schooled in the school of “GOD’S POWER” have nothing to do with negative circumstances, fear, doubts, unbelief and discouragement. Because of their new orientation about who God is,

His names and attributes, they don't have respect for impossibilities. Also, they know that if prayers are not answered, it can never be from God's side. They look for the fault from outside God because God has no relationship with failure. He is more willing to answer our prayers, to give, to bless and to perform miracles, signs and wonders more than we are willing to ask or receive.

Believers in school of "PRAYER AND POWER" sing the song of Moses the servant of God and the song of the Lamb.

Moses never joined the defeated all his life or waste time with the faithless. He fought and conquered and our Lord Jesus did much more than Moses.

God's omnipotent nature expounded: Another divine attribute which no creature can share with God is His "OMNIPRESENT" nature. This means that "GOD IS PRESENT EVERYWHERE" at all times.

This particular attribute of God confirms that nothing can be hidden from God. All things are naked before Him because with God, there's no secret under the heavens. It's the believers' joy to know that the God we serve is everywhere with us to defend us.

And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of. And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the Lord is in this place; and I knew it not.

— GENESIS 28:15, 16

And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the Lord your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.

— JOSHUA 2:11

Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there:

if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day:

the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

— PSALMS 139:7-12

When it's like we are left alone in the midst of enemies or problems, our comfort should be that we are not alone. When we are sleeping, even in the midst of enemies, He is with us and can never leave us alone. Jacobs's testimony as a fugitive, a runaway boy in the middle of the bush was, "Surely the LORD is in this place and I knew it not". There's no place you can get to and God will be absent or late in arrival. He is always everywhere before we get there and can never be taken unawares.

You may keep secrets from mortal men but nothing is a secret before God; He's aware of it and can never be taken by surprise. That's why you must not be afraid of anything as long as you do the right thing. The heathen, all your enemies may rage and imagine evil against you but once God is on your side, their plan is as good as nothing. They may take counsel against you, but God will laugh at them because before execution; the Lord will have them in derision.

Believers who contend for their faith are comfortable in the hand of God and no evil shall befall them. We are not done, let's proceed, introduction to God's attributes still continues.

EIGHT

GOD'S ATTRIBUTES 3

What does it mean to say that God is perfect in knowledge? Another attribute of God is “PERFECT IN KNOWLEDGE”, meaning that He knows everything before they became known.

He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names - Psalm 147:4 (KJV).

The best professors of mathematics, accountants and all that are trained in understanding numbers cannot count the stars in the heavens. But in split seconds, God can count them and call them by names because He created them and they report to Him daily. You may be deficient in hearing but the creator doesn't experience failure in hearing. In his perfect knowledge, He hears the faintest words. He knows your thoughts before you start thinking about it and can discern your imaginations. All the ears of all creatures put together are not functional compared to God's hearing ability. His eyes can see beyond the darkest realm because the darkness is like light before Him.

He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not, see? He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know? The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

— PSALMS 147:4; 94:9-11

He created knowledge that he gave to men, so no knowledge could be hidden from Him. All knowledge, negative or positive reports to God who owns it ever before they resume operation. The acclaimed owners of knowledge are not the rightful owners and cannot serve them without getting approval from the creator.

The benefits of acknowledging God: To retain God's knowledge and benefit from it without failure, you must acknowledge the creator and serve Him through the Lord Jesus.

And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

— LUKE 16:15

Can your true character be hidden from God? You may hide your true character from people but not from God. God knows your down-sitting, your uprising and your thoughts ever before they come to you. Any path you take in life- where you go to or where you will ever be are known by God. Everything that is called human knowledge, gathered together can be pocketed by God without stress. The so-called wise people who have no reference to God through Christ are regarded as foolish before God. If you wish to discover any secret, you can ask, seek, and knock through waiting on God. God knows where all earthly secrets are hiding now.

Is there any impossibility with God? All impossibilities are without any clue because their secrets have not been exposed by God.

And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

— LUKE 16:15

Ebola and all incurable diseases still thrive because their secrets are yet to be discovered. The devil and his agents have secrets that empower them to do evil, but only God knows those secrets.

Does waiting on God help us to discover the secret behind problems?

Yes. It does. If you join us to wait on God in prayer, you can discover the secrets behind your problems.

And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

— LUKE 16:15

What happens when the secret to problems and issues is discovered?

Once the secret behind any problem is discovered, their strength collapses and dies.

The woman of Samaria knew nothing about science but she knew something very important. She said that she was convinced that once the Messiah comes, He will reveal all things to her. That conviction kept her alive and strong until the day she met Christ and she was not disappointed. The day she met Christ, she left her water pot, entered into the city and announced the coming of Christ. In her own words she said, “Come, see a man which told me all things that I ever did: is not this the Christ?” (John 4:29). Those that will meet Christ in this program will discover how to solve their problems. Christ will tell them all that they need to know, which will set them free and give them complete deliverance.

The immutability of God explained: The next in my list on God's attributes is "IMMUTABILITY", meaning God's nature is unchangeable.

And God said unto Moses, I Am that I Am: and he said, thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I Am hath sent me unto you.

— EXODUS 3:14

And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

— HEBREWS 1:12

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days:

thy years are throughout all generations. Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

— PSALMS 90:2; 102:24-27

When God told Moses that my name is “I AM THAT I AM “, He emphasized on the immutability of his name as being unchangeable. Like God, there’s nothing like age, and He remains the same, day after day and year after year. Heaven and earth will one day wax old as a garment and pass away, but God remains the same.

All the older adults and things you see around you were once very young and tender. The young, vibrant youth you are seeing now will one day become old and die one day because they are all given to change, but God’s nature doesn’t change.

Can God change? From everlasting to everlasting, God can never change. He is the same unchangeable God throughout all generations. The foundation of the earth all other creatures with no exception, will get old, but God will not. The power that will get them old is of the Lord and in His control.

For I am the Lord, I change not; therefore, ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

— MALACHI 3:6

For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

— JOHN 1:17

Whatever that had a beginning will eventually come to an end, but our God is endless; He can end all and remain unending.

What you should do so that you can to live long and fulfill destiny: If you want to last long, fulfill your destiny on earth, and live eternally with the unending God; it's possible. What you need to do is to identify yourself with God through his son Jesus Christ. In the Old Testament, the sons of Jacob identified with God and up till now they are not consumed. There's a life called eternal life preserved by God through Christ for all who will repent and remain loyal to Him till death. This is called in the New Testament, grace and truth which came by Jesus Christ and can only be obtained through Him.

What the faithfulness of God entails Another attribute of God is "FAITHFULNESS" which means that God is completely trustworthy. His word cannot fail because it's perfect.

For I am the Lord, I change not; therefore, ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

— MALACHI 3:6

For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

— JOHN 1:17

Can God disappoint? When you cue into God's word in faith, you will not be disappointed. God is so faithful to watch over his word until it is fulfilled. It can convert negatives to positive to remain steadfast in the face of enemies. God's word can enter into the dividing asunder of the repented sinful soul and convert it to become holy. It can deliver from bondage, bring victims to liberty and bless the repentant who was once cursed.

For I am the Lord, I change not; therefore, ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

— MALACHI 3:6

For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

— JOHN 1:17

Whatever God speaks comes to pass, no matter who stands against it because He stands to watch his words fulfilled.

The proof of God's faithfulness to His promise: Abraham was nobody when God promised to give him the ancestral land of many strong nations. Those nations heard it and vowed to defend their father's land handed over to them from generation to generation. After the promise was made, the nation Israel, the physical children of Abraham entered into Egyptian bondage. They were enslaved people in that foreign land for many years, about four hundred years. But one day, God called Moses to demand for their deliverance from the Egyptians. They resisted God's word, but no one can succeed in resisting the Almighty. One day, their bondage was broken and they moved out of Egypt and lived in the wilderness under different tents for many years.

That the Lord spake unto me, saying, thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day: And when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession.

— DEUTERONOMY 2:17-19

And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying, Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

— NUMBERS 22:10-11

God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

— 1 CORINTHIANS 1:9

Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

— 1 THESSALONIANS 5:24

That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

— HEBREWS 6:18

You may be presently going through your wilderness experience, suffering without help. The children of Israel suffered extensively in the wilderness, but the presence of God was with them in those tents. As they moved from one tent to another, the enemies in the land heard it. People asked them where they were going to. And their response had always been, “We are going to the Promised Land”, right from when they were in Egypt. They were homeless for many years under severe weather conditions- cold or hot. They were exposed to danger from wild animals and from trained soldiers in their Promised Land who were ready to attack them. Even when they were mocked at and tagged jokers, confused people and vagabonds, they held unto the promise God made to their fathers. Enemies from many nations rose against them, but they never prevailed over them.

The journey was too long and full of troubles, but they eventually got to the Promised Land border. I don't know where you are now in your journey of life but you will get to your Promised Land.

The descendants of evil worshippers in the Promised Land were determined to stop the children of Israel from entering the land. They were energized by the gods their fathers served in the land for many generations. Just like the children of Israel, every born-again Christian has a physical Promised Land, an inheritance, a place of rest here on earth. If you abide in Christ's word and his words abide in you, you will get to your place in life. Though you may be going through your wilderness experience now- homeless or living in tents, you will not end where you are now. You may be a tenant, homeless or under the fire of persecution, you will surely get to your prepared place. You may be under the fire of contention, division or betrayal; you will surely get to your Promised Land. You may be suffering poverty, hardship or conspiracy; don't give up. Your own fire may be oppressions, injustice and denial of your right; continue in the LORD and don't give up.

What really happened when you gave your life to Christ? The day you got born again, God and the hosts of heavenly angels called you into fellowship with His son Jesus Christ. Don't break that fellowship, no matter what you are going through now.

If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

— 2 TIMOTHY 2:13

If you want to benefit from God's faithfulness, join this fellowship. Fellowship with Jesus Christ the son of God is the only fellowship that will qualify you to benefit from God's faithfulness. God, who has called us into this fellowship, is Himself faithful in bringing us to eternal rest.

Can your unfaithfulness alter God's faithfulness? Even in our unfaithfulness to God, He remains faithful, awaiting our turn around and fulfilling his promises to us. When He promised the seed of Abraham a land flowing with milk and honey, they broke fellowship with Him, but He remained faithful. They broke his commandment, went out and gathered manna on the Sabbath day (Exodus 16:27-31), He still remained faithful. Aaron built an idol and all the children of Israel ignored divine fellowship (Exodus 32:1-33), God remained faithful to his promises. In the wilderness, they complained and murmured against God (Numbers 11:1-10; 16:41-43), yet God kept to his promises.

That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

— HEBREWS 6:18

And the Lord gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. And the Lord gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hand. There failed not ought of any good thing which the Lord had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

— JOSHUA 21:43-45

They broke fellowship again with God when they murmured against Moses, Aaron and even against God himself (Numbers 20:1-13; 21:4-5), but God kept to his word. No matter what you have done or how far away you have left God, his faithfulness is forever.

One day, with all the enemies of Israel in the land of promise, God saw faithfulness in the lives of the children of Israel and fulfilled his promise. They restored their fellowship with God, confessed their sins, forsook them, and the awaiting promises manifested. Their enemy's weapons became useless before the faithful God.

What a believer should do so as not to miss the fulfillment of God's promises: Entering into fellowship with God and remaining faithful brings God's promises to fulfillment. Again, no sinner, no matter how rich, influential or powerful, can keep what he has while a faithful believer who knows his right stays out of God's blessings. No sinner is a permanent owner of whatever he or she has; it can be taken away at any time by the owner and the creator of the whole universe.

The rights and privileges of a true believer: True believers are the rightful heirs of God, and they have the right to every good thing on earth through inheritance. If you are a believer but you are suffering, get ready to enjoy. If you are facing hardship, it will end today as long as you are in fellowship with God and remain faithful to his words. This is the time to enter into a deeper relationship with God and remain faithful till the end. Something is about to happen in your life; get ready.

How to engage and maximize the ministry of angels for true victory against witchcraft. [In Genesis 19:1-29 - Angels rescue Lot and his family from the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. In Exodus 14:19-20 - During the Israelites' escape from Egypt, an angel of God goes before them, leading them through the wilderness and protecting them from their enemies. [Daniel 6:22 - In the story of Daniel in the lion's den, an angel shuts the mouths of the lions.

Asking for angelic assistance will be beneficial whenever you notice the activities of witchcraft powers. You can ask the Lord for angels bearing swords to intervene and clear the paths through which the witchcraft powers operate.

BREAKING EVERY EVIL COVENANT

What is a covenant? A covenant is simply a spiritually binding agreement or contract between two parties, often with God and His people. In the scriptures, God made covenants with certain people including Noah, Abraham, Moses and David.

What is an evil covenant? It is a corrupted and counterfeit agreement that stands in opposition to the original intention of covenant as established by God, characterized by deceit and manipulation. Evil covenants may be directly influenced or orchestrated by Satan

How do people get into evil covenants? People can enter into evil covenants through various means, including engaging in sex outside of marriage, which spiritually binds individuals together and can lead to the transfer of spiritual entities. Pictures exchanged between individuals, especially those promising marriage, can become powerful tools for entering into evil covenants if relationships sour. Blood rituals, such as cutting oneself or mixing blood with another person's, create strong spiritual bonds due to the significance of blood in covenant-making.

Counterfeit religions and occult practices also lure individuals into evil covenants, often through ceremonies, rituals, and pledges of allegiance. Consuming food or drinks from demonic sources can initiate individuals into the demonic world, while certain types of clothing or jewelry, particularly those associated with occult symbolism or rituals, can provide access to demonic influence. Even seemingly innocent items like rings can harbor spiritual power and connect individuals to the demonic realm, potentially leading to life-altering consequences. It's important for people to be vigilant and discerning, recognizing the spiritual implications of their actions and choices.

What are the steps to gaining freedom from the powers and effects of evil covenant? To break free from the evil covenant, reject the evil covenant and disavow any connections or commitments linked to it, seek deliverance through prayer, fasting, and guidance from trusted spiritual leaders or experienced deliverance ministers skilled in spiritual warfare.

How to maximize and utilize the power in the blood of Jesus for total freedom? The Blood of Jesus encapsulates three distinct blessings: forgiveness, deliverance, and protection. “In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace.” (Ephesians 1:7) “For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil.” (1 John 3:8)

What prayer decrees can be used to break every negative influence and evil covenant?

This we will do to them; we will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we swore unto them. And the princes said unto them, let them live; but let them be hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation; as the princes had promised them. And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, we are very far from you; when ye dwell among us? Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God.

- JOSHUA 9:15, 22, 23

And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.) Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, what shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the Lord? And the Gibeonites said unto him, we will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, what ye shall say, that will I do for you.

— 2 SAMUEL 21:1-4

The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel.

To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding; To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity; To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion. A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels: To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother: For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck. My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not. If they say, come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit: We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil: Cast in thy lot among us;

let us all have one purse: My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

DELIVERANCE FROM CURSES

What is a curse? A curse is a spoken or written declaration intended to invoke harm, misfortune, or punishment upon a person, place, or thing.

How to identify the operation of a curse in someone's life:

Unexplained misfortune, such as consistent health problems, financial struggles, or relational conflicts, observing generational patterns of dysfunction or suffering within a family lineage, sudden shifts in luck or persistent negative emotions, coupled with spiritual oppression or unexplained barriers to success, may indicate the presence of a curse. Despite earnest efforts, patterns of failure or rejection can also signal the operation of a curse.

What are the ways through which people come under curses? People can come under curses through various means, often stemming from disobedience to God's commands or involvement in sinful practices. In Deuteronomy 28:15-68, the Bible outlines the consequences of disobedience to God's covenant, including the pronouncement of curses upon individuals and nations. Furthermore, curses can be spoken or invoked by others, intentionally or unintentionally, as seen in instances where individuals use their words to invoke harm or misfortune upon others. Additionally, curses can be inherited through generational patterns of sin and disobedience, as mentioned in Exodus 20:5.

What are the things that empower and strengthen the power of curses? Several factors empower curses, including persistent disobedience to God's commands and sin, which create spiritual footholds for curses to operate. Additionally, curses can be inherited through generational patterns of sin and disobedience, continuing their influence over subsequent generations. Making agreements or covenants with demonic forces, speaking negative words or curses, holding onto unforgiveness, and neglecting spiritual protection can all strengthen the power of curses, leaving individuals vulnerable to their effects.

How to break away from the grip of uncleanness, the power of the flesh and their activities: The use of targeted prayers, reliance on the power of the Holy Spirit, engaging in spiritual warfare and putting on God's armor are needed to break away from the power of the flesh.

What prayers can be used to break away from every curse?

- ISAIAH 59:1, 2

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite: And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the Lord: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

How to benefit and maximize the ministry of angels. To fully benefit from and maximize the ministry of angels in alignment with biblical principles, it's crucial to start by acknowledging God's sovereignty and the role of angels as His servants. Hebrews 1:14 (NIV): "Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?"

Engaging in acts of service and kindness towards others creates opportunities for angels to minister to those in need. Remaining spiritually vigilant and open to angelic manifestations is crucial, as is trusting in God's timing and wisdom for the dispatch of angels according to His perfect plan.

What are the works of the flesh and how can the works of the flesh be dethroned? The works of the flesh refer to sinful behaviors and attitudes that are contrary to God's will and character. In Galatians 5:19-21 (NIV), the apostle Paul lists several examples, including sexual immorality, impurity, hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, and drunkenness, among others. These works of the flesh can manifest in various forms and can lead individuals away from God and His purposes for their lives.

Any evil gang up against my life and destiny, scatter in shame and in disgrace, in the name of Jesus. I command the backbone of my problems to break to pieces, in the name of Jesus. Almighty God, let your name Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end rule and reign over my life forever, in the name of Jesus. Let the Almightyness of God prevail over every work of the devil in my life, in the name of Jesus. Any evil voice speaking against my life and destiny, be silenced by the speaking blood of Jesus. Any evil companion in my life, break and leave me forever, in the name of Jesus. Any tribulation going on against my destiny, be terminated unto death, in the name of Jesus.

What are evil kingdoms? Evil kingdoms typically refer to spiritual realms or systems that operate in opposition to God's kingdom and His principles. Believers are called to recognize the existence of these evil kingdoms and engage in spiritual warfare through prayer, Scripture, and reliance on the power of the Holy Spirit (Ephesians 6:10-18, 2 Corinthians 10:3-5). By resisting the influence of evil kingdoms and aligning themselves with God's kingdom, believers can overcome darkness and advance the cause of Christ in the world.

How to dismantle evil kingdoms: Dismantling evil kingdoms necessitates a strategic and spiritual approach rooted in biblical principles. It begins with fervent prayer, seeking God's guidance, wisdom, and empowerment in the spiritual battle ahead. Surrendering to God's authority and submitting ourselves to His will is paramount, enabling us to resist the devil's schemes and confront evil kingdoms with divine strength.

Why is patience important in winning spiritual battles? Patience is important in winning spiritual battles because it enables us to resist hasty actions, endure challenges, trust in God's timing, avoid compromises, and develop spiritual maturity. It is a virtue that empowers us to navigate the complexities of spiritual warfare with wisdom, perseverance, and faith. Romans 12:12 (NIV): "Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer." This verse encourages believers to be patient in times of affliction, reminding them to remain joyful in hope and faithful in prayer. It underscores the importance of patience as a virtue that accompanies hope and faith.

Tips on how to be clothed with the glory and the presence of God. To be clothed with the glory and presence of God, prioritize seeking Him through prayer, worship, and meditation on His Word. Embrace repentance and humility, allowing His forgiveness to cleanse and renew you. Live a life of righteousness, walking in obedience to His commands and trusting in His promises. Surrender your will to His and yield to His leading, both individually and in fellowship with other believers. Approach God with expectation and anticipation, persisting in prayer with confidence that He hears and answers. Through these steps, you can cultivate a deeper intimacy with God and experience His glory and presence in your life.

Who is the queen of heaven? Both secular and biblical sources concur that the term "Queen of Heaven," as mentioned by the prophet Jeremiah in 7:18 and 44:17-19, as well as 44:25, corresponds to the deity Ishtar or Astarte (also known as Ashtoreth, as referenced in 1 Kings 11:5), an ancient Near Eastern goddess associated with fertility. The term is often used in various pagan and occult contexts to refer to deities or figures associated with celestial queenship associated with demonic activities.

How can the queen of heaven's grip and activity be terminated and stopped? To counteract the influence or presence attributed to the "Queen of Heaven," prayer and engaging in spiritual warfare are essential, invoking the authority of Jesus Christ to rebuke and bind any demonic forces associated with this belief. Additionally, individuals may renounce any involvement with or allegiance to such beliefs, seeking repentance for any sins or idolatry connected to them.

What is an evil name and how can such be corrected and its effect terminated? An evil name typically refers to a label or identity associated with darkness, sin, or demonic influence. Such names may carry negative connotations or spiritual significance that can impact an individual's identity, behavior, and spiritual well-being. The story of Jabez in the Bible, found in 1 Chronicles 4:9-10, provides a powerful example of how an individual's name and circumstances can be transformed through prayer and God's intervention. Jabez's name, which means "pain" or "sorrow," carried negative connotations and perhaps reflected the difficulties he faced in life. However, Jabez refused to be defined by his name or circumstances. Instead, he turned to God in prayer, asking for God's blessing and protection, and seeking to be delivered from the limitations imposed by his name. In response to Jabez's prayer, God granted his request, blessing him indeed and enlarging his territory. Individuals grappling with an evil name or negative identity can find inspiration and hope in Jabez's story. By following Jabez's example of seeking God's intervention through prayer and faith, they can experience transformation and liberation from the effects of their name.

DAY 7

What are the prayers that can be used to destroy the garments of shame, reproach and disappointments? Almighty God, cloth me with your glory and presence all the days of my life, in the name of Jesus. Every garment of shame, disappointments and reproach in my life, catch fire, burn to ashes, in the name of Jesus. Almighty God, deliver me from every sin, lying words and evil prophecies, in the name of Jesus. I break and loose myself, every member of my family from unprofitable relationships, in the name of Jesus.

What are unprofitable relationships? Unprofitable relationships, as cautioned in the Bible, encompass various forms that hinder spiritual growth and well-being. Unequally yoked relationships, where believers partner with non-believers, lead to conflicts in values and priorities (2 Corinthians 6:14). Those consumed by worldly pursuits distract from spiritual advancement, as emphasized in 1 John 2:15-17.

How to terminate an unprofitable relationship: Terminating unprofitable relationships necessitates a thoughtful and prayerful approach, guided by biblical principles. Firstly, seeking God's wisdom through prayer is essential, as indicated in James 1:5, asking for discernment in evaluating the relationship's impact on spiritual well-being.

And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim. Therefore, pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee. Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

the name of Jesus. Any satanic abomination attached to my life, be destroyed, in the name of Jesus. Any evil name tormenting my life, be destroyed by the precious name of Christ Jesus.

What are the prayers and tips on how to put an end to confusion and arrows from the witchcraft world? Every covenant with queen of heaven in my life, break to pieces, in the mighty name of Jesus. Every arrow of confusion fired against me from the witchcraft world, go back to your sender, in the name of Jesus. Any evil sacrifice ever offered against me by anyone living or dead, expire, in the name of Jesus. Every spirit of disobedience planted in my life, be uprooted, in the mighty name of Jesus. Every evil investment in my life from the queen of heaven and other evil kingdom, be destroyed by divine anointing, in the name of Jesus. O Lord arise and take me away from every satanic influence and bewitchment, in the name of Jesus. I break and loose myself from every communication with the queen of heaven and other evil force, in the name of Jesus.

What are family idols and how can one be completely free from the effects of family idols? Family idols refer to objects, practices, or beliefs within a family that are given undue importance or worship, often passed down through generations. They are material possessions that take precedence over God in the family's life. To be completely free from the effects of family idols, Acknowledge the presence and influence of family idols in your life and the lives of your ancestors, Renounce and reject any ties to family idols, declaring your allegiance to God alone and breaking any generational curses or spiritual attachments, Engage in prayer and spiritual warfare, invoking the power of Jesus Christ to break the stronghold of family idols and to cleanse your life and lineage and guard against relapse into idolatrous practices by remaining vigilant and grounded in God's Word.

What are evil sacrifices and how can one be completely free from the effects of evil sacrifice? Evil sacrifices are rituals or offerings made to demonic entities or false gods, often with the intent to gain favor, power, or protection. These practices are condemned in Scripture as idolatrous and sinful (Deuteronomy 18:10-12).

What are the signs or evidence of bewitchment and how can one break away from the effects of all forms of bewitchment?

Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, as for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the Lord, we will not hearken unto thee. But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

— JEREMIAH 44:15-18

What are the secrets to spiritual growth? The secrets to spiritual growth are grounded in a vibrant and intimate relationship with God, nurtured through prayer, Scripture, and the fellowship of believers. Regular communion with God through prayer, as encouraged in Philippians 4:6-7 and 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18, fosters intimacy and dependence on Him. Delving into the depths of Scripture, as stated in Psalm 119:11 and 2 Timothy 3:16-17, enriches understanding and aligns hearts with God's will. Active participation in Christian community, as advocated in Hebrews 10:24-25 and Acts 2:42, provides mutual encouragement and accountability.

The spiritual might you need so that you can withstand the possession of the queen of heaven? To withstand the influence or possession of any dark entity like the "Queen of Heaven," one needs spiritual strength grounded in a deep relationship with God. This involves unwavering faith in God's power, fervent prayer invoking Jesus' authority, knowledge of Scripture for discernment, reliance on the Holy Spirit's empowerment, obedience to God's commands, spiritual discernment, fellowship with believers for support, and guarding one's heart against compromise. By cultivating these elements of spiritual might, believers can resist deception and walk in victory over spiritual darkness.

What are witchcraft properties and how can they be identified? Witchcraft properties typically refer to objects, symbols, or practices associated with witchcraft or occult activities. The presence of items commonly used in witchcraft rituals, such as herbs or candles arranged in specific patterns, may indicate the use of witchcraft properties. Seeking guidance from God, relying on discernment, and grounding oneself in biblical truth are crucial in identifying and responding to witchcraft properties appropriately.

What are the things that enhance or empower the inflow of evil river from the satanic kingdom? The inflow of evil from the satanic kingdom is empowered by various factors. Firstly, engaging in sinful practices and disobedience to God's commands creates openings for spiritual darkness. Spiritual ignorance leaves individuals vulnerable to deception, while involvement in occult activities directly invites demonic influence. Unforgiveness and bitterness contribute to empowerment, as do addictions and negative influences. Unhealthy spiritual practices and rebellion against God also expose individuals to the enemy's schemes. To counteract this, one must cultivate obedience to God, reliance on His strength, and a lifestyle grounded in His Word. Through repentance, prayer, accountability, and spiritual discipline, believers can guard against evil's influence and walk in the freedom of Christ.

What are the effects of aligning our ears and organs to obeying the word of God? Aligning our ears and organs to obeying the Word of God yields profound effects on our lives. Firstly, it cultivates spiritual growth and maturity as we absorb and internalize God's truth. Psalm 119:105 affirms that God's Word is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path, guiding us in the ways of righteousness.

Aligning our ears and organs to obeying the Word of God brings spiritual growth, strengthens our faith, enhances discernment, leads to fruitfulness, and fosters intimacy with God. It is the pathway to abundant life and lasting transformation in Christ.

Can believers lose good things to the kingdom of darkness? Yes, believers can experience loss or have good things taken by the kingdom of darkness through various means. While believers are secure in their salvation and eternal inheritance in Christ (John 10:28-29), they can still encounter spiritual attacks and trials in this world. The Bible warns that Satan prowls like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour (1 Peter 5:8).

Believers may lose temporal blessings, such as health, relationships, possessions, or opportunities, due to spiritual warfare, persecution, or the consequences of sin. Ephesians 6:12 teaches that believers wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. These spiritual battles can affect various aspects of believers' lives, leading to loss or hardship.

Why do believers lose things to the kingdom of darkness? Believers may lose things to the kingdom of darkness due to various reasons rooted in spiritual warfare, sin, persecution, trials, and the fallen nature of the world. Spiritual attacks from Satan and his forces may target believers to undermine their faith or disrupt their lives. Sin and disobedience can create openings for spiritual attack, while persecution for one's faith can result in loss.

What are the prayer tips that can help you recover all that the kingdom of darkness stole from you?

DAY 11

In the name of Jesus, I pray against every yoke of bondage that is weighing me down or hindering my progress. I declare that these yokes have no power over me because of the victory won by Christ on the cross.

I ask for Your strength and guidance as I confront these yokes in prayer. Help me to identify any areas of my life where I have allowed yokes to take hold, and give me the courage to renounce them in Jesus' name. I pray for Your Holy Spirit to fill me afresh, empowering me to resist the enemy and stand firm in my faith. Let Your light shine into every dark corner of my life, exposing and destroying every yoke of bondage.

Thank You, Lord, for Your faithfulness and your unfailing love. I trust in Your power to set me free and to lead me into the abundant life You have promised. In Jesus' name, amen.

Does sin have consequences? Sin has consequences. It leads to spiritual death and separation from God (Romans 6:23). Beyond spiritual consequences, sin often results in negative outcomes in our lives and relationships, as well as legal repercussions (Galatians 6:7). However, through repentance and faith in Jesus Christ, we can find forgiveness and restoration with God, though some consequences may still remain.

DAY 13

Satanic arrests and embargoes are spiritual terms describing situations where individuals feel spiritually detained or blocked from progressing in life due to demonic interference. Satanic arrests make individuals feel trapped, unable to move forward in areas like career, relationships, or health. These investments target spiritual, emotional, physical, and relational spheres, seeking to undermine faith, sow discord, and cause harm. They manifest as spiritual strongholds, emotional turmoil, physical afflictions, and relational breakdowns, aiming to hinder God's plans and advance darkness. Recognizing and resisting these investments requires spiritual discernment, prayer, and reliance on God's power to overcome.

How to break away from all forms of satanic investments. Breaking away from all forms of satanic investments requires a focused approach of recognizing and acknowledging the presence of satanic influence in your life. Secondly, repent of any sins or open doors that may have allowed demonic influence. Thirdly, pray fervently for deliverance, declaring the authority of Jesus Christ. Fourthly, use Scripture as a weapon against the lies of the enemy. Fifthly, seek deliverance ministry from mature believers. Lastly, walk in the freedom and victory that Christ has provided. Through these steps and relying on God's power, you can break free from satanic investments.

And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

Regular prayer and spiritual warfare are essential, enabling believers to combat witchcraft attacks by praying fervently, invoking the name of Jesus, and using spiritual weapons such as the Word of God. Living a holy and righteous life is crucial, as it strengthens believers' spiritual defenses against the enemy. Understanding the tactics and strategies of witchcraft allows believers to recognize and counteract them effectively, while discernment, received through the Holy Spirit, helps distinguish between genuine spiritual manifestations and deceptive practices. Surrounding oneself with a strong community of fellow believers provides support, encouragement, and accountability, fortifying believers against witchcraft influences. Having confidence in God's promise of protection and deliverance, and walking in the authority given by Christ to overcome the power of the enemy, are also essential. Regular study of the Bible equips believers with the knowledge and wisdom needed to stand firm against witchcraft activities, serving as a spiritual weapon and source of guidance. Through these means and by relying on the power of God, believers can live above witchcraft activities and experience victory in their spiritual lives.

What are soothsaying spirits, how do they operate, how can they be identified and exposed? Soothsaying spirits are deceptive entities that operate by offering false prophecies, predictions, or divination practices, leading individuals away from God's truth and into spiritual deception. They prey on people's desires for guidance, often using manipulation and flattery to gain influence and exploit vulnerabilities. Soothsaying spirits may produce counterfeit miracles or signs, contradicting Scripture and leading people into spiritual bondage and confusion. To identify and expose them, believers must develop discernment through prayer, study of the Bible, and reliance on the Holy Spirit. Testing every spirit against the truth of Scripture is essential, along with engaging in prayer and spiritual warfare to resist their influence. Seeking guidance from God and educating others about the deceptive nature of these spirits are crucial steps in overcoming their influence and remaining grounded in truth. Through vigilance, reliance on God, and sharing knowledge, believers can identify, expose, and combat the influence of soothsaying spirits in their lives and communities.

What it means for your destiny to be harvested by others: When others harvest your destiny, they exert control over your life, exploiting your potential and opportunities for their gain. This manipulation disrupts God's plan, leading to a loss of autonomy and frustration. Spiritual warfare may also play a role. To counteract this, seek God's guidance, guard your heart, engage in prayer, assert your authority, and surround yourself with supportive believers.

What are the signs that show or reveal that your destiny is being harvested by others? Signs that indicate your destiny is being harvested by others include feeling a lack of control over the direction of your life, with decisions often made for you by external influences. Despite possessing talents and abilities, you consistently fall short of reaching your full potential, as others benefit from your gifts instead. Encountering repeated setbacks or obstacles in your pursuits hinders your progress, leaving you feeling stuck or frustrated. You may also feel exploited, with others seemingly taking advantage of your resources, talents, or opportunities for their own gain. Experiencing spiritual oppression or warfare, with forces working against you to hinder your growth and success, is another sign. Surrounding yourself with manipulative or controlling individuals who influence or dictate your decisions and actions is common. Additionally, you may sense a diversion from God's intended plan and purpose for your life, as external influences lead you away from His path of blessing and fulfillment. Recognizing these signs can empower you to take action to reclaim control over your destiny and align your life with God's purposes, breaking free from the influence of others to pursue true fulfillment and purpose.

The ways of knowing that your destiny is being harvested by others and how to put an end to such operations: Identifying that your destiny is being harvested by others involves recognizing signs like loss of autonomy, exploitation of talents, repeated interference, manipulative relationships, and spiritual oppression. To counteract this, seek God's guidance through prayer, renounce manipulative influences, engage in spiritual warfare, claim your authority as a child of God, and guard your heart and mind against negative influences. By actively resisting external control, standing firm in your faith, and aligning yourself with God's will, you can put an end to the harvesting of your destiny and walk in the fullness of His purpose for your life.

How to ensure that you are not useless and unprofitable in life: To ensure that you are not useless and unprofitable in life, it's crucial to embark on a journey of self-discovery to understand your purpose. Setting clear goals based on your purpose is essential; break them down into actionable steps to make progress each day. What are evil dedications? Evil dedications refer to the act of consecrating or devoting someone or something to an evil purpose or entity. These dedications are often performed with the intention of invoking dark powers or spirits to bring harm, destruction, or misfortune upon individuals, families, or communities.

In some cases, evil dedications involve rituals or ceremonies conducted by practitioners of dark arts, witchcraft, or occultism. These rituals may include the use of incantations, sacrifices, or symbolic actions to pledge allegiance to malevolent forces or to seek their favor in carrying out malevolent deeds.

Evil dedications can also occur through more subtle means, such as through the spoken word or the setting of intentions. For example, a person may verbally dedicate themselves or their possessions to evil purposes, thereby inviting negative spiritual influences into their lives.

The consequences of evil dedications can be severe and far-reaching, resulting in spiritual bondage, oppression, and the manifestation of curses or hexes. It is essential for individuals to guard themselves against such dedications and to seek spiritual protection and cleansing if they suspect that they have been subjected to them.

Through prayer, repentance, and the power of faith in God, individuals can break free from the effects of evil dedications and experience deliverance and restoration in their lives. These spirits are agents of darkness, often associated with demonic forces, witchcraft, or occult practices. Their primary role is to spy on individuals, monitoring their activities, thoughts, and emotions with the intent of causing harm, oppression, or interference in their lives.

These spirits operate in the spiritual realm, often unseen by human eyes but exerting influence and control over individuals from behind the scenes. They possess knowledge about a person's weaknesses, vulnerabilities, and areas of susceptibility, which they may exploit to instigate trouble, hinder progress, or hinder spiritual growth.

Evil monitoring spirits may manifest in various forms, including as familiar spirits, ancestral spirits, or spirits of divination. They may also be invoked or summoned through occult rituals or practices to carry out specific assignments against targeted individuals.

The presence of evil monitoring spirits can result in feelings of oppression, anxiety, and spiritual warfare in the lives of individuals. How does the spirit of bitterness operate and how can they be dealt with and their assignments terminated: The spirit of bitterness operates by taking root in the heart and poisoning relationships, thoughts, and emotions. It often arises from unresolved conflicts, hurtful experiences, or unforgiveness towards others. This spirit can manifest in various ways, such as harboring grudges, holding onto past hurts, and constantly dwelling on negative emotions.

To deal with and terminate the assignment of the spirit of bitterness, several steps can be taken:

Firstly, it's crucial to recognize and acknowledge the presence of bitterness in your heart or in others. Recognize the destructive impact it can have on relationships and emotional well-being. Confession and repentance play a significant role in this process. Confess any bitterness or unforgiveness to God and repent of holding onto these negative emotions. Ask God for forgiveness and His help in letting go of bitterness.

Forgiveness is a pivotal step. Choose to forgive those who have hurt you, regardless of whether they deserve it or not. Forgiveness is a powerful tool for releasing bitterness and restoring peace in your heart. Prayer is essential. Pray earnestly for God's help in overcoming bitterness. Ask Him to heal your wounded heart, replace bitterness with love and compassion, and grant you the strength to forgive.

Renewal of the mind is also vital. Fill your mind with positive and uplifting thoughts. Meditate on Scriptures that speak about forgiveness, love, and reconciliation. Allow God's Word to transform your thinking and attitudes. Guarding against bitterness requires vigilance. Be mindful of allowing bitterness to take root again in your heart. Guard your heart against resentment and negative emotions, and choose to focus on gratitude, kindness, and love.

Seeking counseling or support can be beneficial. If necessary, seek counseling or support from trusted friends, family members, or spiritual leaders. Sometimes, talking through your feelings with others can provide valuable perspective and support in overcoming bitterness.

Ultimately, overcoming the spirit of bitterness requires a conscious decision to let go of past hurts, forgive those who have wronged us, and embrace God's love and grace. By actively pursuing forgiveness and reconciliation, we can experience freedom from bitterness and walk in the peace and joy that God desires for us.

The reasons blood cry against people, families and nations: Blood cries out against people, families, and nations for several reasons, often tied to injustice, violence, and shedding of innocent blood. One significant reason is murder and violence, where innocent blood is unjustly shed, as seen in the confrontation between God and Cain after he murdered his brother Abel in Genesis 4:10. Additionally, blood cries out when individuals or groups face oppression, exploitation, or injustice, including systemic injustices and denial of rights. Innocent victims, especially children and vulnerable individuals, evoke the cry of blood when they suffer from violence, neglect, or abuse, such as in cases of war or human trafficking.

Moreover, blood symbolizes covenants or agreements, and its violation leads to a cry for justice. This occurs when promises are broken, trust is betrayed, or sacred commitments are disregarded. Blood can also carry spiritual significance, representing the earth or creation, and cries out when used in rituals contrary to divine principles, such as occult practices or idolatry. Additionally, environmental destruction leads to the cry of blood, reflecting the outcry of justice and righteousness in the face of exploitation, pollution, and ecological degradation.

Overall, the cry of blood serves as a reminder of God's concern for the afflicted and marginalized, calling individuals, families, and nations to seek justice, love mercy, and walk humbly before Him (Micah 6:8). It underscores the imperative to address injustices, uphold human dignity, and work towards healing and reconciliation in society.

How to handle and address blood cries: Handling and addressing blood cries necessitate a comprehensive approach that integrates justice, reconciliation, and healing. Firstly, it's crucial to acknowledge and listen to the voices of those affected by injustice, violence, or oppression, empathetically understanding their experiences and grievances. Pursuing justice is paramount, involving holding perpetrators accountable through legal avenues and advocating for systemic reforms to address underlying issues contributing to injustice.

Furthermore, repentance and reconciliation play vital roles, requiring acknowledgment of collective responsibility, offering apologies, and seeking forgiveness from victims and their communities. Restitution and restoration are essential to address the tangible losses suffered by victims, including compensation, restoration of dignity, and support for rehabilitation. Addressing root causes involves tackling systemic issues such as poverty, inequality, and discrimination, promoting human rights and social cohesion.

Moreover, fostering healing and reconciliation involves providing trauma-informed care, counseling, and community-based initiatives to support affected individuals and communities. Proactive measures for prevention and education are vital, raising awareness and advocating for human rights, peacebuilding, and conflict resolution. Recognizing the spiritual dimensions, engaging in prayer and reflection, and seeking divine guidance are also crucial aspects.

What are evil plantations? Evil plantations are malevolent spiritual influences deliberately sown or established in a person's life, environment, or circumstances. These manifestations aim to exert control, cause harm, or hinder progress. They can appear in various forms, such as curses, spiritual bondage, generational strongholds, occult practices, spiritual pollution, demonic assignments, cursed objects or places, and negative mindsets or beliefs. These plantations may perpetuate cycles of dysfunction, affliction, or spiritual oppression, hindering individuals from experiencing God's blessings and purposes. Recognizing and addressing these manifestations requires spiritual discernment, prayer, and reliance on God's power to break free from bondage and experience spiritual liberation and restoration.

How to break away from evil plantation: Breaking away from evil plantations involves a comprehensive approach rooted in spiritual discernment, prayer, and strategic actions. Identify and acknowledge the presence of these malevolent influences in your life, recognizing their manifestations and effects. Repentance and renunciation play a crucial role, requiring sincere repentance for any involvement in sinful practices and a deliberate renunciation of ties to occult activities or curses.

Engaging in fervent prayer and spiritual warfare is paramount. Through prayer, seek God's intervention, deliverance, and protection, using Scripture-based prayers to renounce and nullify the influence of darkness. Additionally, seek the assistance of experienced spiritual leaders or deliverance ministers who can provide guidance and support in breaking free from these influences.

Cutting unhealthy soul ties and renewing your mind with God's truth are vital steps. Sever emotional dependencies and negative associations while immersing yourself in Scripture and rejecting lies that fuel the power of evil influences. Practically, remove or distance yourself from environments and objects perpetuating these influences and maintain vigilance against spiritual attacks.

Fill yourself with God's Word, worship, and fellowship to strengthen your spiritual foundation. Allow the Holy Spirit to empower you to resist evil and live victoriously. Finally, pursue healing and restoration in areas affected by evil influences, seeking inner healing, counseling, and support as needed. Through these steps and reliance on God's grace, you can break free from evil plantations and experience spiritual liberation, restoration, and growth.

What are the riches and prosperities of the kingdom of darkness? The riches and prosperities of the kingdom of darkness present deceptive allurements, promising temporary fulfillment but leading individuals into bondage and spiritual emptiness. Among these offerings are material wealth, often acquired through unethical means, which fails to provide lasting satisfaction. Additionally, there is the lure of power and influence, rooted in manipulation and oppression, leading both wielder and subject into spiritual enslavement. Sensual gratification and indulgence in sinful pleasures are offered, but these fleeting joys leave individuals feeling empty and enslaved to their desires. The kingdom of darkness also offers false knowledge and wisdom, leading astray with distorted truths and deceptive philosophies, ultimately resulting in confusion and spiritual bondage. False promises of security and immortality may seem appealing, yet they lead only to spiritual death and eternal separation from God. It's crucial to understand that true wealth and prosperity are found in Jesus Christ alone, who offers forgiveness, eternal life, and genuine fulfillment to all who believe in Him.

How to conquer the enticement of riches and prosperity coming from the kingdom of darkness: Conquering the enticement of riches and prosperity from the kingdom of darkness requires a multifaceted approach rooted in spiritual discernment and anchored in the truth of God's Word. First and foremost, prioritize seeking God's kingdom above all else, aligning your desires and pursuits with His will. Renew your mind continually through the transformative power of Scripture, discerning truth from deception and guarding your heart against worldly allurements. Cultivate humility and gratitude, acknowledging God as the ultimate source of all blessings, and exercise self-control over worldly desires and impulses.

When faced with temptation, seek refuge in prayer, asking God for wisdom, discernment, and strength to resist the schemes of the enemy. Surround yourself with a supportive community of believers who can provide accountability, encouragement, and prayer support in your spiritual journey. By integrating these principles into your life, you can effectively conquer the enticement of riches and prosperity from the kingdom of darkness, remaining steadfast in your devotion to Christ and His kingdom.

How to be safeguarded from the enticements coming from the kingdom of darkness and the spirits behind them: Safeguarding oneself from the enticements of the kingdom of darkness and the spirits behind them requires intentional spiritual practices and reliance on the power of God. Grounding oneself in Scripture is paramount, as regular immersion in God's Word enables discernment between truth and deception. Prayer for discernment is essential, seeking wisdom to recognize the tactics of the enemy and to resist his schemes. Clothed in the spiritual armor described in Ephesians 6:10-18, believers stand firm against spiritual attacks, armed with truth, righteousness, faith, salvation, and the Word of God.

Guarding the heart against worldly influences is crucial, as Proverbs 4:23 advises, ensuring a devotion to God above all else. Being filled with the Holy Spirit empowers believers to resist temptation and walk in obedience to God's will, while avoiding compromise and submitting fully to Him, as outlined in James 4:7. Seeking accountability and remaining connected to a faith community provide support, encouragement, and prayer during the spiritual journey. Through these practices, believers can effectively safeguard themselves from the enticements of the kingdom of darkness and the spirits behind them, remaining steadfast in their faith and devotion to God.

Through these steps, you can experience freedom from negativity and embrace the abundant life that Christ has promised.

What is a demonic canopy? The demonic canopy refers to a spiritual stronghold or influence exerted by demonic forces over a particular area, individual, or situation. It represents a pervasive and oppressive presence of darkness and evil that seeks to exert control and hinder the work of God. This canopy can manifest in various forms, such as spiritual bondage, oppression, deception, and the proliferation of wickedness.

It operates to block the blessings, purposes, and manifestations of God's kingdom in the affected area or individual's life. Scriptures such as Ephesians 6:12 describe spiritual warfare against powers and principalities, highlighting the existence of such demonic influences. Recognizing and addressing the demonic canopy requires spiritual discernment, prayer, and reliance on the power of God to break through and bring freedom and deliverance.

How to remove demonic canopy from covering your glory: Removing a demonic canopy from covering your glory involves several key steps. Firstly, acknowledge its presence and influence over your life. Repent of any sins or involvement with occult practices contributing to this influence. Engage in fervent prayer, specifically targeting the demonic forces behind the canopy, using Scriptures that affirm God's authority over darkness. Seek deliverance ministry from experienced leaders, pursue a lifestyle of holiness, and clothe yourself daily with spiritual armor. What are the spirits of borrowing and begging? The spirits of borrowing and begging are negative forces that can deeply impact individuals and communities. They operate by fostering a mindset of lack, dependency, and perpetual indebtedness. Those influenced by these spirits often find themselves trapped in cycles of financial struggle, constantly needing to borrow or beg for basic needs or desires. This can lead to a loss of dignity, as individuals feel diminished by their reliance on others. Moreover, it perpetuates a cycle of debt and poverty, trapping generations in financial hardship. To break free from these spirits, individuals must acknowledge their presence and negative effects. Through prayer, repentance, and a renewed mindset rooted in God's abundance and provision, they can overcome these influences. By seeking God's wisdom in financial stewardship, practicing contentment, and living within their means, individuals can break free from cycles of debt and dependence, experiencing true financial freedom and abundance in Christ.

What are the signs and evidence of the operation of the spirit of borrowing? The operation of the spirit of borrowing manifests through various signs and evidence in individuals' lives. Persistent financial strain is a common trait, with individuals struggling to meet their financial obligations despite regular income. This often leads to accumulating high levels of debt from loans, credit cards, or other sources beyond their means to repay. Constantly seeking financial assistance from family, friends, or financial institutions is another indicator, as they may borrow money frequently to cover basic expenses or luxuries. Despite earning income, individuals may have little to no savings and struggle to set aside funds for emergencies or future needs. Living beyond their means, indulging in extravagant purchases or unsustainable lifestyle choices, is also prevalent.

This financial pressure leads to stress, anxiety, and sleepless nights, coupled with feelings of shame or embarrassment when borrowing repeatedly from others. Ultimately, the spirit of borrowing fosters a cycle of dependency, where individuals rely on borrowing to maintain their lifestyle, perpetuating their financial struggles. Recognizing these signs is crucial for individuals to acknowledge the presence of the spirit of borrowing and take steps towards breaking free through prayer, financial discipline, and seeking God's wisdom in managing their finances.

And he said unto him, say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people. And he said, what then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, verily she hath no child, and her husband is old. And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door. And he said, about this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thine handmaid. And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

And Hezekiah wept sore. For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, wilt thou be made whole? The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. What is a satanic dark room? A satanic dark room is a metaphorical term used to describe a state of spiritual oppression, bondage, or deception orchestrated by demonic forces. It represents a condition where individuals or communities find themselves trapped in spiritual darkness, unable to perceive or understand the truth of God's word due to the influence of evil entities.

In this dark room, people may experience confusion, fear, and a sense of hopelessness as they are ensnared by lies, temptations, and destructive patterns of behavior promoted by the enemy. It's a realm where spiritual warfare is intense, and the enemy seeks to keep individuals bound and separated from the light of God's truth and love.

The satanic dark room can manifest in various forms, including addiction, occult practices, deception, and oppression. It may also involve spiritual strongholds that hinder individuals from experiencing freedom and abundant life in Christ.

However, despite the darkness and oppression, the light of God's truth and power can penetrate even the darkest rooms, bringing deliverance, healing, and restoration. Through prayer, repentance, and reliance on God's Word and Spirit, individuals can break free from the grip of satanic darkness and walk in the light of God's kingdom.

They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places. Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim. Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the Lord hath comforted his people,

I plead the blood of Jesus over their minds and thoughts, casting out any spirit of foolishness and replacing it with Your divine wisdom.

Father, surround them with godly counsel and mentors who can guide them in making wise decisions with their resources.

I declare victory over the spirit of foolishness in their lives, knowing that You are able to turn their wastefulness into abundance and blessings.

Thank You, Father, for Your faithfulness and love. In Jesus' name, Amen.

How people invite demons into their lives and families: People can unknowingly invite demons into their lives and families through various means. One common way is through involvement in occult practices such as witchcraft, divination, or idol worship. These practices open spiritual doors for demonic influence and oppression. Additionally, engaging in sinful behaviors like drug abuse, sexual immorality, or involvement in violent activities can create an atmosphere conducive to demonic activity. Furthermore, harboring unforgiveness, bitterness, or hatred in the heart can also attract demonic forces. Ultimately, any form of disobedience to God's commands and reliance on worldly ideologies instead of God's truth can leave individuals vulnerable to demonic influence. It's essential to maintain a close relationship with God, walk in obedience to His Word, and regularly pray for protection against the schemes of the enemy.

DAY 9

How to command blessings from the four ends of the earth (North, South, East and West) and what are the prayer points that can help in this area? Every spirit of drug abuse, drunkenness in the life of any member of my family, I bind and cast you out, in the name of Jesus.

Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof. Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thine hand. Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity.

— DEUTERONOMY 28:30, 32, 41

I command every member of my family to be blessed from the north, south, east and west, in the name of Jesus. Every load of the devil upon any member of my family, drop by force, in the name of Jesus.

What does it mean to marry an enemy? Marrying an enemy signifies entering into a union with someone who opposes or undermines one's well-being, values, or interests. It can lead to conflict, strife, and challenges in the relationship, requiring wisdom, grace, and God's intervention to navigate successfully.

In the context of marriage, entering into a union with an enemy can exacerbate existing tensions and lead to heightened conflict and discord within the relationship. The dynamics of such a marriage may be characterized by mistrust, resentment, and a lack of emotional intimacy, making it difficult to cultivate a healthy and fulfilling partnership.

The reason why some would never do well in life and ministry is because the person they got married to is an enemy who has been sent from the pit of hell to destroy them. Without discernment in the choice of a life partner, it would be difficult not to marry an enemy. The moment you know that God has an agenda for your life, there is a need to prayerfully choose a life partner.

However, it's important to recognize that the concept of marrying an enemy is not limited to literal adversaries but can also encompass situations where couples face significant differences or challenges in their relationship. These differences may include cultural or religious differences, conflicting personalities, or divergent life goals and aspirations.

Marrying an enemy represents a significant challenge that requires wisdom, grace, and God's intervention to overcome. By cultivating humility, forgiveness, and a reliance on God's guidance, couples can navigate the complexities of their relationship and work towards reconciliation and unity, ultimately building a marriage rooted in love, understanding, and mutual respect.

What are the qualities of a good spouse? A good spouse demonstrates love, commitment, and trustworthiness, fostering a secure and loving bond. They communicate openly, respect their partner, and provide unwavering support through both joys and challenges. Shared responsibilities, forgiveness, patience, and a sense of humor contribute to a resilient and harmonious relationship. Spiritual alignment, when present, deepens the connection and provides a shared foundation for navigating life together.

How can an enemy be identified? An enemy can be identified through their actions, attitudes, and intentions towards oneself or others. Signs of enmity may include hostility, deceitfulness, manipulation, or undermining of one's well-being, values, or interests. Observing patterns of behavior, assessing interactions, and discerning motives can help recognize individuals who pose a threat or opposition. Additionally, intuition and discernment, guided by wisdom and prayer, play a crucial role in identifying potential enemies and safeguarding oneself from harm.

DAY 10

What are the prayers that can aid deliverance from evil relationships?

1. Prayers for deliverance from evil relationships:
2. Pray for discernment to recognize toxic relationships that are harmful to your spiritual, emotional, or physical well-being.
3. Ask God to break any unhealthy soul ties or emotional attachments formed in the relationship that hinder your freedom and growth.
4. Seek the Lord's guidance in renouncing any negative influences, patterns, or behaviors introduced by the relationship that are contrary to His will for your life.
5. Pray for God's protection and shielding from spiritual attacks or manipulation by individuals in the evil relationship.
6. Ask for the grace to forgive those who have wronged you in the relationship and release any bitterness, resentment, or unforgiveness from your heart.

7. Pray to sever any unholy connections or ties with individuals involved in the evil relationship, declaring freedom and separation in the name of Jesus.
8. Seek the renewal of your mind and spirit, asking God to cleanse and purify your thoughts, emotions, and desires from the influence of the evil relationship.
9. Pray to be filled afresh with the Holy Spirit, asking for His guidance, strength, and wisdom to navigate away from harmful relationships and walk in God's purpose for your life.
10. Ask for God to surround you with a supportive community of believers who will encourage, uplift, and hold you accountable in your journey towards deliverance and healing.
11. Pray for restoration and healing from the wounds and scars inflicted by the evil relationship, trusting in God's promise to bring beauty from ashes and joy from mourning.
12. Seek to walk in the freedom and victory that Christ has secured for you, claiming His power to overcome every snare and stronghold of the enemy.
13. Pray for wisdom and guidance in establishing healthy boundaries, making wise decisions, and discerning future relationships according to God's will.

What is the difference between sufficient grace and sustaining grace?

The difference between sufficient grace and sustaining grace lies in their respective functions and manifestations in the life of a believer. Sufficient grace refers to the divine empowerment and strength that God provides to believers to endure trials, challenges, and hardships, enabling them to persevere and remain steadfast in their faith, even in the face of adversity. It does not necessarily remove the difficulties or suffering but offers the necessary strength to endure and overcome them, as exemplified in 2 Corinthians 12:9, where God tells Paul, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." On the other hand, sustaining grace encompasses God's continuous support, provision, and guidance throughout the believer's journey of faith, offering ongoing presence, love, and care in every aspect of life, sustaining them in daily challenges, enabling wise decisions, and fulfilling their calling, as seen in passages such as Psalm 55:22, which says, "Cast your burden on the Lord, and he will sustain you; he will never permit the righteous to be moved." Both forms of grace are essential for the believer's journey, providing strength, comfort, and assurance of God's presence and care.

DAY 11

Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The Lord will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

Then the angel of the Lord went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses. So, Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

Every unrepentant enemy in the battle field of my life, destroy yourselves with your own weapons, in the name of Jesus.

— 2 KINGS 17:33

Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof.

— DEUTERONOMY 28:30

And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Likewise, also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

— JUDE 1: 6, 8

Let the specialist gifts of my family members manifest to glorify God forever, in the name of Jesus. I refuse to compare my family with other families, in the mighty name of Jesus. I command the fear of God to dominate every life in my family forever, in the name of Jesus. Every spiritually and physically distraction against any member of my family, be terminated unto death, in the name of Jesus. Every satanic attack, witchcraft manipulation against any member of my family, be terminated, in the name of Jesus.

How do we identify, expose and terminate all evil spiritual marks?

Identifying, exposing, and terminating all evil spiritual marks involves a multifaceted approach rooted in prayer, discernment, and spiritual warfare.

Begin by seeking discernment from God to recognize any signs or indications of evil spiritual marks in your life or the lives of others. These marks may manifest as patterns of misfortune, oppression, or spiritual bondage that seem to persist despite efforts to overcome them.

Engage in fervent prayer, asking God to reveal any hidden or disguised spiritual marks and expose them to the light of His truth. Pray for wisdom and discernment to identify the origins, purposes, and effects of these marks on your life or the lives of others.

Cultivate spiritual discernment through regular study of God's Word, prayer, and fellowship with mature believers. Learn to recognize the voice of the Holy Spirit and distinguish between truth and deception in spiritual matters.

Confront any identified spiritual marks with the truth of God's Word and the authority of Jesus Christ. Declare scriptures that affirm your identity and authority in Christ, breaking any unholy agreements or alliances.

Repent of any personal or ancestral involvement in occult practices, idolatry, or sin that may have opened the door to spiritual marks. Renounce these ties and declare your allegiance to Christ alone.

Engage in targeted prayer warfare to terminate and dismantle evil spiritual marks. Pray against demonic assignments, curses, and strongholds, commanding them to be broken and rendered powerless in the name of Jesus.

Seek deliverance ministry from mature and experienced spiritual leaders who can provide guidance, support, and prayer covering as you confront and overcome evil spiritual marks.

Undergo a process of spiritual cleansing and protection through prayer, fasting, and submission to God. Invite the Holy Spirit to fill and empower you, sealing you with His presence and safeguarding you from further spiritual attacks.

Remember that victory over evil spiritual marks is ultimately achieved through the power of Jesus Christ and the authority of His Word. Stay vigilant, persevere in prayer, and trust in God's faithfulness to bring about complete freedom and restoration in your life.

What are filthy dreams and how can such dreams be stopped? Filthy dreams are dreams containing inappropriate or morally offensive content, often of a sexual nature, that can leave the dreamer feeling disturbed, guilty, or spiritually compromised upon waking; stopping such dreams involves practical measures like limiting exposure to explicit media, establishing healthy sleep habits, and seeking accountability, as well as spiritual approaches such as fervent prayer, renewing the mind with Scripture, seeking repentance and surrendering to God, and, if necessary, seeking special prayers.

Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof. Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thine hand. Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity. Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it. Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them.

Any evil personality assigned to defile the marriage of any member of my family, be frustrated, in the name of Jesus.

What is the garden of your life? The garden of your life serves as a metaphorical representation of the various aspects of your inner world, including your thoughts, emotions, spiritual vitality, relationships, and physical health, all of which require careful cultivation and protection to flourish. Just as a physical garden demands consistent attention, nurturing, and safeguarding against external threats, so too must you diligently tend to and preserve the different facets of your being. This entails actively guarding your thought life against negativity and falsehood, nurturing emotions of love, joy, and peace while protecting your heart from hurt and bitterness. Furthermore, maintaining a vibrant relationship with God through prayer, worship, and the study of His Word is crucial for spiritual vitality, requiring protection from distractions and spiritual attacks. Additionally, fostering healthy relationships with others involves setting boundaries and discerning between positive influences that uplift and toxic ones that detract from your well-being. Lastly, attending to your physical health through proper nutrition, exercise, rest, and self-care is essential, necessitating protection against harmful habits and behaviors. By conscientiously attending to and safeguarding the garden of your life, you can experience holistic well-being, spiritual growth, and fulfillment in every area of your existence.

What are sexual demons and how can they be identified, exposed and their activities terminated? Sexual demons are spiritual entities believed to influence and manipulate human sexuality, often leading individuals into immoral or destructive behaviors. These demons are thought to incite lust, pornography addiction, sexual perversion, and other forms of sexual immorality, causing spiritual, emotional, and relational harm.

Identifying sexual demons involves recognizing patterns of behavior or thought that deviate from God's design for sexuality and relationships. Signs may include uncontrollable sexual urges, addiction to pornography or sexual activities, persistent thoughts or dreams of a sexual nature, and difficulty maintaining healthy boundaries in relationships.

Exposing sexual demons requires spiritual discernment and engagement in prayer and spiritual warfare. Begin by seeking God's guidance and protection through fervent prayer, asking for discernment to recognize the presence and influence of sexual demons in your life or the lives of others. Confess any involvement in sexual sin or bondage and renounce any unholy agreements or alliances with these entities.

Confront sexual demons with the truth of God's Word and the authority of Jesus Christ. Declare scriptures that affirm purity, holiness, and sexual integrity, rebuking any demonic influence or stronghold in the name of Jesus. Engage in targeted prayer warfare, specifically addressing the spiritual roots and manifestations of sexual bondage and asking for deliverance and freedom.

Terminate the activities of sexual demons by actively resisting temptation, avoiding situations or triggers that may lead to sexual sin, and surrounding yourself with supportive accountability partners and mentors. Seek professional help from counselors or therapists experienced in addressing issues of sexual addiction or bondage, and engage in ongoing spiritual disciplines such as prayer, fasting, and scripture meditation to maintain spiritual strength and resilience.

Ultimately, victory over sexual demons is achieved through the power of Jesus Christ and the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit. By submitting to God, resisting the devil, and walking in purity and obedience to His Word, you can overcome the influence of sexual demons and experience freedom, healing, and restoration in your sexuality and relationships.

Message from the Author

I want to see you succeed, grow, and break free from negativity and obstacles. My hope is for you to thrive, unaffected by negative influences and challenging situations. Because of that, please permit me to introduce two courses that I believe passionately will help you:

1. To break the evil altars and powers of your father's house, The role of altars in the realm of existence is very key because altars are meeting places between the physical and the spiritual, between the visible and the invisible.

Unless a man cuts off the evil flow from the power of his father's house, he will not fulfil his destiny. Click here to learn more about my course on how to tear down unholy altars and close the enemy's entryways into your life!

2. To help you seamlessly break iron-like problems, illness, delayed marriage, poverty, or any long-standing battle.

Discover the transformative power of Christian fasting and prayer. Remember, Matthew 17:21 teaches us, "But this kind of demon does not go out except by prayer and fasting." Ready to overcome your struggles? Click here to learn more about this course.

Embrace the journey ahead with faith, for through prayer, fasting, and the dismantling of evil altars, you shall unlock the doors to spiritual liberation and divine breakthrough. May your path be illuminated by His grace as you walk towards a life free from bondage.
